KEYSER'S WHEREABOUTS

TWEED SELLING OUT.

The Small-Pox on the Increase.

NEW YORK, November 9, 1871.

TWEED INTERVIEWED.

Tweed, being interviewed yesterday, said that he was not prepared to answer any questions regarding his reported resignation. But it is pretty certain that the report is untrue. Tweed said the great success of the Reform party took him completely by surprise and he was totally unprepared for it. Tweed's counsel stated yesterday that he would hurry the trial of the charges of the Reform Committee. They had no reason to wish delay.

TWEED SELLING OUT.

The Tribune says that Tweed has been rapidly transferring his property to other hands. A few days ago he sold another large piece of valuable property, which cost two millions, to his son. He has also been selling stock in various railways and other companies—in most instances at a sacrifice. He no longer figures as a Director of the Third Avenue Railroad. His name was dropped for the reason that he has lately sold all his stock in that line. He held, at the time Mr. O'Connor began the suit against him, 700 shares of Metropolitan gas stock, worth about $1,365,000. He ordered its immediate sale after the suit began, and though the then rate was $1.95, forced it on the market and disposed of it for about $1.70. He is reported to have attempted to sell the lease of the Metropolitan Hotel.

SUITS TO BE PRESSED.

Charles O'Connor says the Legislature will at once proceed to erase from the statute book the nefarious laws that gave so much power to the rascals who had so nearly ruined the credit of the city, through their misgovernment. The suits against the ring officials will not be allowed to languish, although they would not be pressed quite so hastily as heretofore. It had been the object of the prosecution to place the evidence before the people, in order that it might be properly considered before election, and thus give honest citizens an opportunity of turning out of office the scoundrels who had so long defrauded the city. But the suits would proceed, as there was no intention of allowing them to rest, or to relieve the rogues from the legal lash which they so richly deserve.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.

At a meeting of the Union League Club this evening, the following was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Union League Club have learned with profound regret of the death in a foreign land of their late associate and honorary member, Major Gen. Robert Anderson, whose heroism in the defense of Fort Sumter constitutes one of the most honorable events in the history of the late war. In common with our loyal countrymen, we deeply mourn the loss of this brave patriot and Christian hero, and we tender to his family our warmest sympathy.

RETURN OF INGERSOLL.

Ingersoll returned to New York on Monday night. He had been in constant communication with his friends, and ascertained that the limitation of the order of arrest, which had been granted against him, expired on Saturday. On Tuesday he appeared at the polls in the Nineteenth ward, voted the Tammany ticket, and returned. Yesterday he sent a messenger to the Sheriff's office, with the information that he awaited his arrest with considerable impatience, and had gentlemen in readiness to sign the bond for release. His arrest cannot be effected until a new order is granted. This probably will be done to-day.

MEETING IN BROOKLYN.

A meeting of the Republican Committee and Republican candidates of Brooklyn was held this morning. There was a large attendance. After several speeches, in which it was asserted that evidences of a conclusive nature were ready to prove glaring frauds by the inspectors and poll canvassers by which several candidates were counted, a committee was chosen to bring the matter properly before the public, the courts and the Legislature. Mayor Kalbfleisch was present and acted in sympathy with the meeting.

CORRUPT OFFICIALS TO BE IMPEACHED.

General Barlow, the newly elected Attorney General of the State, says that criminal proceedings will be immediately commenced against every man implicated in the city frauds. He says, further, we can now easily rid ourselves of all corrupt officials. The Mayor, the Commissioners of the different municipal bureaus, the Judges in the city inferior courts, and Judges of higher courts, will be reached by impeachment.

MASS MEETING CALLED IN BROOKLYN.

The committee appointed at the Brooklyn meeting this morning have issued a call for a mass meeting of tax-payers in the Acadamy of Music to-morrow night, to express indignation at the ring frauds alleged to have been perpetrated on the voters last Tuesday. Mayor Kalbfleisch will preside. Several returns from districts in five wards of Brooklyn are still missing.

TWEED WILL NOT RESIGN.

Tweed has not resigned, and will not. He was at his office this afternoon, and was called upon by many friends. He will take his seat in the Senate on the opening day. O'Donovan Rossa will, however, contest his seat, on the ground of illegal voting and false canvassing, to prove which he is said to have plenty of witnesses.

TWEED'S FRIENDS.

John Graham, Judge Shandley, and a number of other smaller fry of the Tammany persuasion, waited on Tweed to-day. It is reported that Tweed sent for them, to consult on the expediency of his taking his seat. He says he has not resigned either the Senatorship nor as Commissioner of Public Works.

FORGER ARRESTED.

Theodore Bannson, the leader of a gang of bounty and back pay claim forgers, was arrested here last evening. It is stated that he manipulated a forged claim on the Government amounting to $400,000. His headquarters have lately been in Chicago.

WRIT APPLIED FOR.

Spencer, counsel for Irving, applied to Judge Woodruff for a writ of habeas corpus, contending that Davenport's action was unlawful. An order was granted directing the Attorney General to show cause for not granting the writ.

CITY CREDIT IMPROVING.

A city charter will be framed, and a new election ordered. Deputy Comptroller Green states that the result of the election is already felt in the improved price of city bonds, and that he now has no trouble in raising any amount of money.

KEYSER'S WHEREABOUTS.

John H. Keyser is believed to be traveling in Florida or the Carolinas for his health. His partner says the little property at Aiken, S. C., was bought by Keyser months ago, with the intention of establishing a hospital for northern invalids.

SMALL-POX ON THE INCREASE.

At a meeting of the Board of Health, yesterday, the report of the City Sanitary Inspector showed an increase of fourteen cases of small-pox in the week ending November 4th. The matter was referred to a secret session.

LABORERS DISCHARGED.

Three hundred Croton laborers were discharged yesterday. They wanted their pay to-day, but together with four water registers, were told to come again.

ILLNESS OF FIELDS.

A new order of arrest has been issued against Thomas Fields. He is lying ill at his residence. This morning the formality of arrest was gone through with, and bail is to be given immediately.

A RESCUE FEARED.

Marshal Sharpe, fearing that Jim Irving's friends would rescue him from the Ludlow street jail, has issued an order for his removal to a United States fort.

JUDGMENT REVERSED.

The general term of the Supreme Court reversed the judgment giving Captain Samuels $5,000 for an alleged libel by the Evening Post.

AID FOR SUFFERERS.

The receipts at the office of the Staats Zeitung for the fund in aid of the sufferers from the prairie and forest fires have reached $2,335.

INCREASED SALARIES.

Judge Brady will probably decide tomorrow the question as to the payment of the increased salaries of Judges and Aldermen.

SENT TO JAIL.

James Irving, for assaulting United States Marshal Dowley, has been sent to Ludlow street jail, pending an investigation.

RESIGNATION RUMOR.

It was rumored this afternoon that Mayor Hall intends to resign before the organization of the new municipal boards.

GENERAL SHERMAN.

General Sherman and staff will be here on Saturday, to take passage on the frigate Wabash.

TWEED'S REPLY.

Tweed said to-day that he will be ready with a reply to Judge Learned's warrant when the twenty days are up.

CONTESTING SEATS.

McMahon, Reformer, will contest Blair's seat in the Assembly, and Kilian will contest Frear's.

THE VICTORY ON TUESDAY.

The Post says the victory on Tuesday was not Republican, but an unpartisan triumph.

THE VIADUCT RAILWAY.

The Sun states that the building of the Viaduct Railway, one of the Tammany jobs, is indefinitely postponed.

REFORM MEETING.

A mass meeting of the Young Men's Municipal Reform Association will be held next week at Cooper Institute.

THE INJURED FIREMEN.

All the firemen injured by the Tenth avenue disaster will recover.

OFFICIAL PATRONAGE.

It is stated that Sigel will make O'Donovan Rossa Deputy Register.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. BANKS.

General Banks and family arrived from Europe to-day.

COUNTERFEITER PARDONED.

Martin Frank, counterfeiter, was pardoned by the President.

FIELDS ARRESTED.

Thos. C. Fields was arrested to-day and gave bail in $200,000.

CHICAGO.

Locomotive Precipitated into the River.

CHICAGO, November 9.—Last evening as the locomotive "Wheeler," on the Northwestern Railroad, was approaching Kinzie street bridge, the tug "McClellan" collided with the bridge and swung it partially open, and the locomotive was precipitated into the river. There were three persons on the locomotive. Wm. Lee, a clerk in the Purchasing Agent's office, went down with the locomotive, and his body has not been recovered. Ed. Pierce, engineer, was rescued, but severely injured. Charles Hall, fireman, escaped without injury.

ASPHYXIATED.

N. Moller, of Adeline, Ogle & Co., put up at the Southern Hotel last night, blew out the gas in his lodging room and went to bed, and this morning was found dead from asphyxia. He was intoxicated when he went to bed.

THE SHOOTING OF GROSVENOR—CHARGE TO GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury for the November term of the Criminal Court was empanelled this morning, and received the charge of Judge Williams. In his charge the Judge touched upon the killing of Colonel Grosvenor, and refers to the letters published and purporting to come from Governor Palmer in relation to the indictment of Lieutenant General Sheridan, Mayor Mason and others. He says they should find no bills against any of their party, except an information against two of their number, who have personal knowledge of the facts. Neither the prosecuting attorney nor the court has the right to instruct as to whom you should indict. It would be dangerous to private rights and an invasion of your prerogatives if ever this court should advise you whom you should indict; and if this court may not do it, far less may any person who does not sustain to you official relations. Should any one not of your body seek to influence you by written, printed or verbal communications, you should inform the court of such fact, that the offender may be dealt with for contempt. Neither will you permit yourselves to be affected by any such communications, printed or to be printed, nor any editorials written or to be written for any paper published here or elsewhere. More particularly ought I to warn you against being influenced by certain letters published in some, if not all, of your city papers, purporting to have been written by the executive of this State to the Attorney General, and to the District Attorney of this circuit, advising the indictment of certain persons named therein, purporting to be the letters of the Governor, and having been extensively circulated. Your respect for our honored Chief Magistrate personally, and for his official position, might lead you to attach to them great weight, but they should not exert any influence upon you whatever. The prosecuting attorney of this court informs me that he knew nothing of the lettter said to be addressed to him until he saw it published in the city papers. If it was written by the Governor, it was only a private letter to the district attorney, and should have been in his hands before it was given to the papers. It would be inconsistent with the high reputation of our chief magistrate for integrity and legal learning to suppose that he desired those letters published, in order to influence your action as a Grand Jury. The possibility that such would be their effect would be enough to deter him from giving them to the public. You ought not to assume that the respected Chief Magistrate of this State would do an act highly indecorous and improper to any individual, and above all in one whose duties are not judicial.

THE ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK.

THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY.

NEW YORK, November 9.—The World says the Republican majority in the State will be from 12,000 to 17,000. The Legislature is two-thirds Republican in both Houses.

There is universal satisfaction over the result of the election by men of all parties.

BUFFALO, N. Y., November 9.—The official count shows that James Sheldon, Republican, has been elected Judge of the Superior Court instead of Geo. Wadsworth. As before reported, Sheldon leads Wadsworth five votes. George Clinton, Democrat, the other Judge elected to the Superior Court, runs over 300 ahead of all competitors.

ILLINOIS.

UNION "FIRE PROOF" MAJORITIES.

CHICAGO, November 9.—The following are the majorities in this city for the Union Fire Proof ticket: Medill, for Mayor, 11,037; Gage, City Treasurer, 10,849; Ramsey, County Treasurer, 9,866; Jameson, Judge of Superior Court, 10,400; Free, Judge of Superior Court, 10,028; Stiles, City Attorney, 9,868; Van Hallen, City Collector, 6,111; Beveridge, Congressman at large, 2,462.

Meeting of Cotton Dealers.

ST. LOUIS, November 9.—A meeting of the cotton dealers of this city was held yesterday, to consider the project of forming a Cotton Association, for the purpose of inducing planters to send their cotton here for sale, buyers from the east and Europe to come and purchase, and to make this city a large cotton market. A committee was appointed to draft articles of association and report at an adjourned meeting on Wednesday next.

RAILROADS.

B. & O. Extension.

CHICAGO, November 9.—The western extension of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is to come into this city on the track of the Illinois Central Railroad from Calumet Station. These companies, together with the Michigan Central, Burlington and Quincy Railroads, will build a Union Passenger Depot. Their present plans would require a great deal more ground than that portion of lake front which has already been applied for, and it is understood that they will apply to the city to sell them all that part of Lake Park north of Van Buren street, upon which they propose to build the finest depot building in the world.

NEW TIME TABLE.

A DUNKIRK paper says: By reason of the rapid increase of the freight business of the D. W. & P. R. R., a new time table has been formed by which straight connections are made for Pittsburgh, an independent freight train created and the freight detatched from the regular passenger trains. This movement, together with the erection of telegraph, will greatly facilitate passenger travel on the road. With freight cars to switch at every station the ride hitherto has been tedious to passengers. One day last week the regular passenger train from Warren carried 28 loaded freight cars. The telegraph poles have been up several weeks but the Union telegraph company have been behind in the work of stretching the wire. Another week and it is now believed the wires will be up and operated. With the telegraph line established, the freight cars freed from the regular passenger trains, and turn tables established where necessary, travel on the D. W. & P. R. R., will be as comfortable as upon any road upon the continent.

ROADS IN EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Norristown (Pa.) Free Press says: The immense amount of business of every description, particularly in this part of the State, has given rise to various railroad projects, some of which are certain to be successful. Among the latter number we can class the Stony Creek road, running from Norristown to Lansdale, thence to Doylestown, crossing the North Penn. road at Lansdale. The building of this road has been awarded to Clark, Reilly & Co., of Philadelphia, and we learn that they will commence work at four different points on the first of November, with the view of pushing the road to completion by the first of October next. We presume it is the intention of the North Pennsylvania Company, in providing the running stock for the Stony Creek road, to run the trains in connection with those running to and from Doylestown, in which event the trains leaving Norristown will meet with the trains on the North Penn. road, leaving Lansdale for Norristown and return, the same as at present, making three trips each way every day. We learn that a survey for a railroad to accommodate the public between Norristown and Philadelphia via Roxborough and neighborhood has already been made, and that a number of the wealthiest men in this and Philadelphia county are interested in seeing the enterprise successful. But we must not close our reference to railroad matters without mentioning the continuous double track from Souder's Station to Philadelphia, recently completed by the North Penn. Railroad Company. The iron for the track between North Wales and Lansdale has all been laid and the ballasting is very nearly completed, so that with the double track between the latter place and Souder's, which has been in use for some time, the company have a good double track for twenty odd miles. The double track is also being extended southward from Bethlehem, and the grading is progressing rapidly to Hellertown. So successful has the road been this last summer with its through passenger business that an increase of accommodations is continually required.

THE Lewisburg (Pa.) Chronicle says: We congratulate our readers that the regular freight and passenger trains have commenced running from Lewisburg to Mifflinburg, over one of the finest and we may say the most durable roads in the State, having been built in the most substantial manner. The gauge is four feet eight and a half inches, which we trust will be continued through the entire line to the western terminus. It is really surprising that such valleys as Buffalo and Penns should have been so long without a railroad. The freight and passengers over the road as far as completed, bids fair to be large, much more so than anticipated. We hope the balance of the road may soon be put under contract, which will insure its speedy completion.

IN speaking of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad the York Republican says: The track laying on this road has been completed, we understand, as far as the crossing on the York road where the Western Maryland Railroad crosses it, and is being rapidly pushed forward to Frederick. There are ample supplies of iron and ties on hand to finish the road without delay, and it is now confidently expected that by the first of next January the entire road will be completed and trains passing over the whole length of it.

THE Columbus (Ohio) State Journal says: The Fremont, Lima and Union Railway Company filed a statement of its reorganization. This company's road commences at Fremont, and from thence runs through the counties of Seneca, Hancock and Allen to the town of Lima, and thence through the counties of Auglaize, Mercer and Darke to the west boundary line of Ohio, at Union. The capital stock of the company is one million dollars.

THE Warren Chronicle says: The Ashtabula railroad will be built to Niles by next Christmas, from its eastern terminus, thereby opening a through line to Pittsburgh. The line of the road follows the old canal tow-path from Girard to Niles. Considerable force is now at work on that end of the road. Engineers are now locating the road between Niles and Warren.

THE Sunbury, (Pa.) American says, of the Sunbury and Lewistown railroad: The first regular train was run over this road on Wednesday last, from Lewistown to Selinsgrove. The trains will not run up to this place until the 13th inst., when the new schedule for the Northern Central and the Philadelphia and Erie roads will be put in operation.

THE Zanesville Courier says: The grading between Medina and Grafton, on the Lake Shore and Tuscarawas Valley Railroad, has been completed, and it is also well along between Medina and Seville. The iron is laid in Grafton Centre, and for a short distance this side.

A Diplomatic Influenza.

M. Casimir Perier, the new French Minister of the Interior, is the subject of a pleasant story connected with the time when he was a diplomatist and Louis Philippe was king. Just before the new year the Austrian Embassador, who was to have complimented the citizen king, was recalled, and the task devolved upon the Russian Embassador, as senior representative. When the Emperor Nicholas, who never could tolerate the younger branch of the Bourbons, learned this, he ordered Count Pahlen to repair to Moscow for instructions. As there was nothing stirring in Europe at the time, the affront was unmistakable, and M. Guizot determined to revenge himself. His first idea was to recall the French Embassador but unfortunately M. de Barante was on leave of absence at the moment, and could have only been recalled from Auvergne. M. Casimir Perier was first secretary at St. Petersburg, and M. Guizot sent him a violent dispatch insisting on the necessity of upholding the honor of France, and instructing him to catch a violent cold in the head, and to refrain from attending any Court festivity. M. Casimir Perier obeyed, and, as the chronicler remarks, his handkerchief became le drapeau de la France. For two months the unfortunate first secretary was confined to his room, not daring to show his nose outside the embassy for two months, till he received permission from his Government. During his confinement he was constantly receiving dispatches on the necessity of maintaining the honor of the flag, and making the Czar feel that France was not to be insulted with impunity.

THIS is how badly a Texas snake was fooled. A genteman living about two miles below San Antonio bought, some three months since, a china egg, which he placed in a nest, always leaving it when collecting eggs for table or market. Some two months ago the aforesaid imitation egg disapeared, and was almost forgotten. Recently a large snake was killed by the genteman, who, upon opening it, found the missing egg.

SAWDUST SWINDLER.

LONDON, November 9.—A swindler named Charles J. Whittington, of No. 34 John street, New York, has been sending circulars here offering counterfeit notes on the Bank of England at low rates. The police magistrates telegraphed the facts to New York, and the Police Times exposes the fact this morning. Whittington doubtless is one of the sawdust swindlers.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Lord Mayor's show, with the usual display and procession to Westminster Hall, took place today.

LORD MAYOR'S DAY.

LONDON, November 9.—The festivities of the Lord Mayor's Day were closed with the usual banquet given by the Lord Mayor at Guild Hall, which was attended by a brilliant company of ministers, members of Parliament, ambassadors and other distinguished persons. Among the guests were Gladstone and several members of the Cabinet, and Mr. Schenck, the American Minister. The toast to the Diplomatic Corps, which was fully represented, was responded to by Mr. Schenck, who, in the course of his speech, made a grateful and feeling allusion to the sympathy shown to Chicago in its great calamity. His speech was loudly and significantly applauded.

Mr. Gladstone, replying to "Her Majesty's Government," said he was thankful to be able to state that at the present moment England had actually no quarrel, feud or controversy with foreign powers anywhere on the surface of the earth. England's place in Europe was that of one among many sisters, inseparable from the European family, but he was glad that her peculiar position removed her from the risks of European dissensions. Peace was never so certain as now. He believed that the sentiments of friendship and attachment which had been expressed by the Minister of the United States on the part of the American people for their brothers in Great Britain were universally felt in the breasts of both nations. "When," said Gladstone, with much earnestness, "the American Minister spoke of relief for Chicago, the heart of this great hall answered him. America has been equally ready to pour out her treasure for our relief." [Prolonged cheering.] "The Treaty of Washington," he continued, "not only obviated future controversies, but it was an extension of that international code which was the most remarkable triumph of modern civilization, and might possibly inaugurate the peaceful arbitraments of all disputes among nations." The Premier concluded by declaring that England had little to fear from internal troubles, and that the International Society, a source of so much apprension to her neighbors, caused no uneasiness here.

FRANCE.

COAL MINE EXPLOSION.

PARIS, November 9.—A terrible explosion occurred in a coal mine near St. Etienne, while the gangs were at work. None of the men have yet been recovered alive. Twenty-two bodies have been taken out, but thirty miners are still in the pit, all of whom are supposed to be dead. The explosion was caused by fire damp.

COMPULSORY MILITARY SERVICE.

In the General Council of Eure yesterday Minister Pouyer Quertier said that Thiers, who had been opposed to making military service obligatory, was beginning to yield before the necessity of such a measure to bring the army up to a proper standard of efficiency.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

The general councils of the departments throughout the country are considering the subject of compulsory education. Several have already adopted the system. Many have declared in favor of it, and there is good reason to believe that all will eventually accept and carry it into practical operation.

ARCHBISHOP DENNISON, in acknowledging the receipt of a pamphlet from the British Liberation Society, entitled, "Disestablishment as viewed by Churchmen," says the question of the duty of contending for the establishment is becoming every day a more doubtful one, for it is impossible that the establishment, such as it is made, can continue to be the Church.

MDLLE. ELISE WALEWSKA'S wedding came off in Paris, recently. The civil marriage was performed in the Mayoralty of the Eight Arrondissement, and the "nuptial benediction" was given by the Papal Nuncio in the Church of St. Pierre at Chaillot. The bride is singularly beautiful. Compte de Bourqueney, the bridegroom, has been appointed to a diplomatic post at Washington, whither he takes the young countess.

MR. TAYLOR, of Manchester, England, has received the following letter from Gen. Garibaldi:

CAPRERA, Oct. 10, 1871.

MY DEAR TAYLOR: I go with Becario for the abolishment of capital punishment and war. How then could I approve of the murder of the hostages of Paris. However, they will know in time that many more murders were committed by the Versailles party. Ever yours

G. GARIBALDI.

"ONE of Charles Dickens's friends" directs the attention of the promoters of the proposed memorial at Portsmouth, to this extract from the author's will: "I enjoin my friends, on no account, to make me the subject of any monument, memorial, or testimonial whatever. I rest my claims to the remembrance of my country upon my published works, and the remembrance of my friends upon their experience of me in addition thereto.

M. CHARLES LEFEVRE, a popular French gentleman who, in England, races his horses under the assumed name of "Mr. T. Lombard," has, it is said, just came into a fortune of over $2,500,0000, left him by a cousin whom he never saw in his life. The gentleman in question died in this country, whither he immigrated many years since with the sum of $2,500, which M. Lefevre's father lent him when all his other relatives turned their backs upon him.

THE Princess de Beauffremont has renewed her suit in a French court for a separation from her husband, to whom she brought a large dowry, on the ground of neglect and cruelty. As an instance of neglect, it was brought forward that the Prince, who served through the Mexican campaign, never wrote to his wife during his absence from France, and on arriving in Paris he contented himself with sending the following telegram to his wife, who was in the country: "I can't find my shirts." During the recent war he was taken prisoner, and not only neglected to write to his wife, but on his return declared he did not wish to see her again.

FREDERICK LINDENHALL, late Colonel of the Sixth Legion, says the Paris Liberte, is now in a mad-house at Camdentown, London. This singular gentleman, who has $75,000 a year, was in Paris when the insurrection broke out, and got himself presented to General Cluseret by his cook, who made him a Lieutenant Colonel. Lindenhall took part in several combats, and when the Versailles troops entered was able to make his escape with his English passport. However, the terrible events through which he had passed troubled his brain, and his family had to shut him up. The strangest part of the affair is that when Lindenhall went mad he fancied himself a Frenchman, and took to speaking the French language.

AT Belfast, Ireland, there was held an immense town meeting, for the relief of the Chicago sufferers on the 17th of October, over which the Mayor presided. Great interest was manifested, and the subscriptions were most generous. Dr. James Rea, the United States consul, made an earnest speech, in which he said: "I am here this day simply as a looker on, and a deeply affected looker on at the noble and generous sympathy which you have manifested in respect of the late calamity which has fallen upon the 'Garden City' of the United States, (Hear, hear.) You will give me credit for heartfelt emotion in the case when I tell you that that city is virtually my home. There I labored as a writer for one of its enterprising and high-toned newspapers for years, and always regarded the interests of the beautiful city, where so many of my dear friends reside, as my own."

COUNT BENEDETTI, who figured so prominently in the diplomacy which immediately preceded the Franco-German war is concerned in a curious affair is likely to come shortly before the law courts. That gentleman, who is himself of Greek descent, when consul in Egypt, married a young Greek lady, who passed as the daughter of M. Anastasis, a wealthy merchant settled at Alexandria. It was, however, generally known that Madame Benedetti was a greek slave of great beauty, who had been taken very young into Egypt, after the war in the Morea. M. Anastasis, who had no family, had purchased her, adopted and brought her up, and on his death he left her the whole of his fortune, which amounted to several millions of francs. The relatives of the deceased protested against the will, but did not venture to dispute it under the Empire, the husband of Madame Benedetti possessing great influence. At present, however, a nephew of Anastasis has taken up the subject, and placed it in the hands of two advocates of Paris.

The Indictments for Murder.

SALT LAKE, November 9.—Notwithstanding that the grand jury and officers of the court have kept their secrets wonderfully well, it is now ascertained that the indictments against Brigham Young, Mayor Wells and Hosea Stout for murder were not found upon the sole testimony of Bill Hickman, the so-called "Destroying Angel." It is known that on the trial a witness will be produced for the prosecution not implicated in the charge at all, who, it is said, will testify to about all that Hickman has sworn to, and perhaps more.

MINING SUITS.

The great topic in mining circles continues to be the suits of the Eureka Company vs. Aspinwall and others at Provo. The chief mines in litigation are the King David and May Henrietta. Both are very rich, if not the richest in the territory. They are in the Tintic mining district.

GONE TO WASHINGTON.

General Augur left to-day for Washington to report to President Grant on the situation in Utah.

MINING NEWS.

Large amounts of silver bullion are received daily from the Ely district. The shipments of base bullion and ore are extremely light.

The Ogden Press claims, on the practical tests of Cornwall experts and practical miners, that the tin discoveries at that place are verified, and nothing is exaggerated. It is a fact that ore from the Ogden ledges has been crushed into pulverized rock, melted in a crucible and spits of metal brought out which have been coated with copper at the heat of the soldering iron, suitable only to tin.

ROCHESTER.

Lutheran Council.

ROCHESTER, November 9.—George H. Moeller, of New York, and Thomas H. Lane, of Pittsburgh, were to-day elected as additional trustees under the provisions of the charter of the general council of the Lutheran church.

The rebuilding of the Church of Mercy in Chicago was committed to the care of the Lutheran Mission and Church Extension Society.

The establishment of a theological seminary in Chicago was postponed until next year.

The next session of the council will be held at Akron, Ohio, commencing on the first Thursday in November, 1872.

CALIFORNIA.

European Mail for Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 9.—Fifteen bags of closed mail, per steamer Russia for Chicago, arrived here overland to night. The postmaster will send them back to-morrow.

—The Ohio State Woman's Suffrage Convention commenced its session on Thursday forenoon at Xenia. The attendance was small. Mr. R. A. Janney, of Columbus, called the Convention to order. After the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions, addresses were made by Mrs. Langley, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Stewart, of Springfield; Mrs. Cole, of Sidney, Mrs Cutler, Miss De Forest and others.

—At Delphi, Ind., on Tuesday night, F. C. Morrison died from injuries received on Monday by being thrown from a wagon.

THE ARIZONA INDIANS.

Ku Klux Arrested.

RUSH FOR VACANT OFFICES.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, November 9, 1871.

TREASURY AGENT APPOINTED.

George Spalding has been appointed special Treasury Agent at Detroit, vice Edward Lafavour, who has been transferred to the position of Appraiser of Merchandise at that port.

THE ARIZONA INDIANS.

Delegate McCormick, of Arizona, who has been in consultation during the past week with President Grant, General Sherman, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Interior, is understood to say that the new programme for the control of the Indians in Arizona will be satisfactory to his constituents if strictly adhered to and General Crook is sustained in his dealing with hostile Indians. The Fifth cavalry is ordered to Arizona to relieve the Third, and will proceed there at once. McCormick has protested against certain acts of Colyer during his visit to Arizona, and says he is satisfied that they were not authorized and are not approved by the President. He believes that there was not any purpose on the part of his constituents to misuse Colyer, and says they do not wish for war measures an hour longer than is necessary to convince the Apaches that they must cease their robberies and murders. The Arizonians object, however, to the assertion that these Indians, as a class, are honest and peaceably disposed, or ever had been.

RUSH FOR VACANT OFFICES.

There is a lively contest for the vacant offices in Philadelphia, caused by the death of United States Marshal Gregory, the transfer of Collector Sickels, of the Fourth district, who is to be pension agent in place of Forbes, and the resignation by Mayor elect Stokely of the assessorship of the Second district. A number of Philadelphia politicians have arrived to urge the claims of their respective favorites, but the President has taken no action in the matter. The consolidation of the Second and Fourth revenue districts is talked of, with the Collector of the Second and Assessor of the Fourth in charge. D. W. Baxter and J. N. Kerris are said to be prominent applicants for General Gregory's position.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

The low barometer in Illinois will probably move eastward on to Lake Erie on Friday. Easterly winds will continue on Lake Michican, backing to the northwest, and increasing northeast winds on Lake Erie, veering to the southwest; southwest winds with rain from Georgia to Virginia; cold northwest winds and clearing weather west of Alabama and Illinois; easterly winds with threatening weather in New England. Warning signals are ordered. Cautionary signals are ordered for the southern portion of Lake Michigan and Lake Erie.

KU KLUX ARRESTED.

A letter from Spartansburg, South Carolina, says last Friday night a squad of cavalry rode out in the direction of Limestone Springs, and returned with eleven Ku Klux prisoners. Thus far all who could give good bonds have been admitted to bail, and are making preparations for their trial.

PREPARING ESTIMATES.

The Treasury Department has commenced the preparation of estimates for the next fiscal year.

POSTMASTER APPOINTED.

The President has appointed William Wallace as postmaster at Battle Creek, Michigan.

THE RIVERS.

CINCINNATI, November 10.—River stationary. Light rains throughout the day and partially clear; to-night warm.

LOUISVILLE, November 10.—River rising slowly; rain at intervals all day. 2 feet 10 inches at head of canal and 15 inches in chute.

EVANSVILLE, November 10.—Clear and warm, rain this morning. River rose 1 inch. Port list—Eauclaire to Green River, Fayette to Henderson and return, Fanny Brandies to Memphis, Burksville to Cairo. Ella Hughes, Owensboro to Grand View.

CAIRO, November 10.—Argunout, Cairo, St. Louis, 11 P. M; Dexter, New Orleans, St. Louis, 11; John Kyle, New Orleans, St. Louis 8 A. M.; St. Luke, Memphis, St. Louis, 8; Columbia. Arkansas River, 11; Louisville, New Orleans, Cairo, noon; Ada Heilman, Memphis, Cairo, 1 P. M.; St. Joseph, St. Louis, Memphis, 4; Mary Miller cleared for New Orleans, 5. River rose 4 inches. Clear; thermometer 60.

ST. LOUIS, November 9.—Arrived—Florence and Bee and barges, Cairo; Belle of Pike, Memphis; Sucker State, Keokuk; Lady Pike, Upper Mississippi. Departed—H. S. Turner, New Orleans; Sucker State and St. Johns, Keokuk; Alice, Memphis; Lady Pike, Upper Mississippi. River falling slowly. Rain last night; clear and cool to-day. Freights south lower and unsteady.

MEMPHIS, November 9.—Clear and pleasant. River rose three inches. Departed—Mollie Moore and Wicks, St. Louis; Mary Boyd, White river. The Legal Tender, which left here last evening for White river, struck a snag at Bennett's Landing, which caused her to leak; she returned for repairs and entered a protest.

LITTLE ROCK, November 9.—Clear and pleasant. River falling slowly. Departed—Leclaire, Memphis.

NEW ORLEANS, November 9.—Arrived—Belle Lee. Departed—Andy Johnson, St. Louis.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The Cleveland Insurance Company has gone into liquidation. M. C. Younglove has been appointed receiver.

—The Jarvis collection of Italian paintings was sold at auction at New Haven, Conn., yesterday. It was bought by Yale College for twenty-two thousand dollars.

—In Tamma county, Iowa, the hog cholera prevails to an alarming extent, and almost every farmer is more or less a loser.

—A meeting of Methodists was held at Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday evening, to help the churches of their denomination in Chicago. Two thousand dollars were subscribed.

—Governor Hoffman has appointed Samuel Jackson, of Schenectady, N. Y., Judge of the Supreme Court in the Fourth Judicial District of New York, in place of Judge Rosekrans, resigned.

—The Rhode Island Woman's Suffrage Association, at their annual meeting at Providence, R. I., yesterday, voted to become an auxiliary to the American Association. Mrs. E. B. Chase was re-elected President.

—A St. Paul (Minnesota) special to the Cincinnati Chronicle says: United States Commissioner Spencer discharged the Fenian Generals O'Neil and Curly on the ground that, although the offense was clearly established, no proof was adduced that the expedition was organized in Minnesota.

—A Columbia (S. C.) dispatch to the New York Herald states that several arrests had been made at Union Court House by the United States Marshal, and that more are being made. The dispatch also states that public feeling is very bitter, and if bloodshed ensues it would not be surprising.

THE Preacher said "There is nothing new under the sun." A great many thought that Pier, Dannals & Co's. cream ale was something new, and that they had got Mr. Solomon in a tight place, but now antiquarians tell us that Methusalem drank the bottled cream ale, and it was to that they attribute the great age which that distinguished gentleman arrived at. So the "wise man's" character for veracity remains unimpaired.

GENERALITIES.

MISS KATE DENIN has joined the Janauscheck troupe.

AN unsuccessful attempt was made last week, near Quitman, Ga., to throw a passenger train off by piling lumber on the track. In the express car was $10,000.

THE difficulty about the right of way of the Kansas Central Railway through the reserve has been satisfactorily adjusted by General Pope and President Smith.

ALL the country papers throughout Ohio and Pennsylvania are full of alarm about the small-pox which appears to be showing itself throughout these States.

IN Russia they have special cars for persons who do not smoke; a sensible idea when we consider that more than half of the traveling public is composed of smokers.

MRS. FRANCES BARTLETT DE OVIEDO, the bride of the famous diamond wedding in New York a lustre or two ago, contributed one hundred dollars to the Chicago relief subscription taken up in Havnna.

THE small-pox is raging violently at Chillicothe, Ohio. The infected portion of the town has been districted, and policemen stationed so as to prevent emigration from the locality. The inhabitants are represented to be quite panic stricken at the alarming state of affairs.

THE Chicago Evening Post says: "It does not in the least degree astonish us to hear that the wife of General Sherman, of the army, and of Admiral Dahlgren, of the navy, want a uniform law of divorce," We want to know who this woman is who is the wife of two such distinguished gentlemen.

MR. HENRY WARD BEECHER, advocates cooked worms as an article of food, or, as it has been put, he favors the diet of worms. He says that the worms eat his fruit and vegetables and he would eat them in return. Angle worms au naturel or eel stuffed with slugs ought to be as palatable as snails or oysters.

THE Cumberland News says: Knobly Mountain, south of the city, on the Virginia side of the river, is on fire. A large portion of the burning woods is in full view of the city, and last night the streaks of fire, stretching along the moutain side, with dense volumes of smoke rolling above, presented a beautiful sight.

THE Juniata Sentinel says: "Large fires have been raging in the mountains on the south side of the Narrows, between this place and Lewistown, and also on the Licking Creek side of the same mountains. On Sunday and Sunday night the valley people worked hard to keep the fire from getting down to the fences about their farms.

THE Jamestown (N. Y) Journal says: We are reliably informed that the small-pox has at last found its way into Mayviile, though not in its worst form. Mr. Hershberg, a gentleman from Pittsburgh who has charge of a large ice-house, his wife and "Fud" Wilcox, are down with the disease. Every precaution is being taken to prevent its spread.

THE Clearfield (Pa.) Journal says: We are informed that Mr. Samuel Troy, Sr., of Union township, this county, on Tuesday, Oct. 17th, shot two full-grown wolves in that township; on the 26th of September he caught one in a trap—thus capturing three of these vicious "varmints" in less than a month. The neighborhood is well rid of them, as they had become quite bold and annoying.

A NEW and strange disease has made its appearence in the neighborhood of Corydon, Indiana. The patient is taken with a chill, alternated with hot flushes of fever, and followed by such excruciating soreness of the muscles that he can hardly be turned on a sheet. He experiences the most intense abhorence for food, and his flesh soon turns spotted. After lingering in a debilitated state for about two weeks, the patient begins to recover. The doctors say the symptoms are new and strange, and they are at a loss to understand the best mode of treatment.

THE Louisville, Kentucky, Courier Journal, Etc., got off the two following remarks: Nilsson, it is said, "cannot approach Seebach in the depicturing of alternating ecstasy and despair experienced by a pure and gentle nature." Western people will now understand why the Nilsson price of admission was so persistently kept down to four dollars.

California has been unfortunate in the selection of names for her towns. She has a town which she calls Los Angeles (the City of the Angels), but whenever a Celestial shows his face there everybody turns out to hang him.

THE Somerset (Pa.) Herald says: The Pittsburgh and Baltimore Coal and Coke Company are now making arrangements to put in operation, at once, a large furnance and boilers to manufacture steam enough to run all the manufacturing establishments at Ursina, of which, there are to be not a few. A large barrel factory, with capacity to manufacture 100,000 oil barrels annually; a large car manufactory is already under way; immense buildings for the manufacture of both building and fire brick are to be erected. These buildings are to be so built that bricks can be made during the entire year. The barrel factory of Messrs. Lichliter and Hanson will also be supplied with steam from these boilers.

THE New York Evening Post, in spite of warnings and laments, persists in making puns such as the following:

To tobacco-raisers down South even a light frost may be a weighty matter.

As Mr. Ashbury couldn't take the silver cup, he contented himself by going home with the "China."

It is presumed that the sweeping destruction in the northwestern forests has effectually cured even the most old fashioned people of their fondnesss for the "luxury" of wood-fires.

As an illustration of the law of compensation—in place of the thousands of partridges destroyed in the burned forests, thousands of business agents have gone from the East to the West, and are now vigorously "drumming."

THE Lexington, Ky., Press of Saturday says: The entire contract for the building of the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad has been let out to Messrs. Huston & Bibb, of Virginia. The distance of twenty-six miles between here and Stoner at Winchester is divided into as many sections, and Capt. R. S. Scott, sub-contractor on this portion of the road, breaks ground on Monday morning, commencing at the headwaters of Scott's pond, between the Winchester and Richmond pikes, one mile from the city. It is understood that Gen. J. C. Breckinridge, Vice President of the road, will stick the first spade into the ground, and inaugurate a work from which Lexington expects to derive incalculable benefits. Many citizens have proposed to celebrate the breaking of ground by a supper to be given on Monday night.

HERR WOERMAN, ship-owner, of Hamburg, has been commissioned to procure a coffin for his present Majesty, the King of Jberio, on the west coast of Africa. "The coffin is of firwood, polished on the outside, and on the whole furnished very comfortably. It is lined with red velvet, and has soft velvet cushions. There are five glass windows in the lid, to let the light enter; and under it is placed a mirror for aid to reflection. The handles and feet are of tin, as well as all the window-settings, and, lastly, the coffin's arrangement is completed by two bottles of Geneva and the necessary glasses." It is also stated that this box is to be placed in the meantime "in His Majesty's state apartment," where it is to be hoped the bottles of Geneva will not prove too tempting.

Antique.

An ancient tomb has recently been discovered on the Island of Malta, which has attracted great attention. The tomb consists of an oven-shaped excavation in rocky land, four feet three inches high in the centre, and nine feet five inches in diameter. In the midst of the tomb was a sarcophagus, six feet long, three feet broad, and one foot nine inches deep, with sides four inches thick. The sarcophagus is represented as quite uninjured, and its angles as sharp and perfect as if just hewed from the parent rock. The entrance to the tomb was at one side, is circular and faces the west, and is reached by a pit six feet below the surface of the ground. The entrance was closed with a thick slab of the same kind of stone as the sarcophagus. On the floor of the tomb the discoverers picked up a brass anklet, of great antiquity, a piece or a clay lamp, and some human bones. No traces of an inscription were found. This ancient tomb, it is stated, is of Phœnician origin; the roundness of the aperture distinguishing it from the Egyptian tombs, the entrances of which are always rectangular. It is stated that there are numerous Phœnician remains in Malta, and that ancient sepulchres are discovered in great abundance.

A MAD dog bit Rev. J. C. R. Williams, a Baptist minister, in the vicinity of Hampshire, Maury county, Tenn., a short time since. The dog came from Swan Creek, Lewis county, and about thirty dogs are tied up, supposed to have gone mad. Grave fears are entertained that Mr. Williams will also be attacked by hydrophobia.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

ELECTION, TUESDAY DECEMBER 5, 1871
For Mayor—B. W. MORGAN.
For Treasurer—C. L. MAGEE.
For Controller—R. J. McGOWAN.

Bonds at Frankfort 96½.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 111¼@111¼.

Now that the elections are over possibly we shall be treated to the views of the Commercial, promised some time ago, on the reasons why ten thousand Republicans failed to vote in this county, at the October election. Come, neighbor, enlighten us.

"All the Tammany candidates for the Senate, except 'Boss' Tweed, have been defeated."—World.

What a pity that Democracy should still cling to such an idol; but his power is forever gone, and he will be pointed out, if he takes his seat in the Senate, as the only thief there.

The Philadelphia Press, in describing Woodbury, N. J., says: "In the little square near the Court-house is a beautiful copy of Cleopatra's needle, in the form of a statue erected to the memory of the brave men from Gloucester." Now we have no desire to appear hypercritical, on the contrary we but seek for information, when we ask how a copy of Cleopatra's needle can be in the form of a statue?

The Post thinks the defeat of the Democratic party in the State of New York may do that party some good. Sensible at last. It also claims New Jersey as Democratic; that is decidedly good, when we remember that the Senate will stand—Republicans 12, Democrats 9; and the House—Republicans 38, Democrats 22. The Post has a way of extracting comfort where no other Democrat can. Put out your rooster for Tweed.

The Post can find nothing discouraging to Democracy in the result of the New York election, and says it was only "a temporary blow." That is what Tweed said some months ago, but the blow has lasted much longer than he, or the Post thought it would. With New York Republican, by thirty thousand majority, and the ballot-box stuffing and repeating of New York city forever effectually stopped, we do not much wonder at Democracy being in sack cloth and ashes.

The principal objection urged by Democratic journals against President Grant is that he has traveled several thousand miles and mingled with the people since he was inaugurated. What better way we would venture to ask, could the executive of a great nation adopt, in order to ascertain the wants of the people, and the demands of the country? Is it not a puerile objection? and even less wise than some others which we have heard, viz: that the President smokes cigars, and admires a good horse. Surely his enemies are hard pushed for reasons upon which to base their opposition to the President of the United States.

It is now suggested that Count Von Beust's resignation of the portfolio of foreign affairs in Austria was the result of Prince Bismarck's desire for revenge. Beust has always been strongly anti-Prussian in his sentiments, and, as long ago as 1864, when he was premier of Saxony, he succeeded in defeating a little diplomatic intrigue of Bismarck's, the ultimate object of which was the absorbtion of Saxony by Prussia. The great Prussian bided his time, and now, when it is desirable that the courts of Austria and Prussia should be in perfect accord, he has, it is thought, induced the Austrian Emperor to believe that Beust is an insurmountable obstacle in the way of such a consummation. The idea is a good one and not improbable.

The trial of Mrs. Wharton, accused of poisoning General Ketchum and other persons, it is now said, will positively be commenced at Annapolis on the fourth of December. For some time this case was the leading public sensation, but the terrible events of the last few months have quite driven it into the back ground. Nevertheless the trial will be watched with a great deal of interest. Mrs. Wharton will be defended by Messrs. S. Teakle Wallis, J. Nevitt Steele and John H. Thomas. The lawyers for the prosecution are Hon. Isaac D. Jones, Attorney General of Maryland, A. Leo Knott, Baltimore City Attorney, and Hiram Revells, District Attorney for Anne Arnudel county, Maryland. A grand legal struggle is anticipated, and it is said that other distinguished counsel will be added to these already formidable lists. Mrs. Wharton and her devoted daughter are now in the jail at

THE AUDITOR GENERALSHIP.

The death of Dr. David Stanton, Auditor General elect, brings up the questions, was he at the time of his death an officer of the Commonwealth, and does his death create a vacancy? Had he lived, he would not have taken his seat until the first Tuesday of next May; and until actually sworn into office he does not become the de facto officer. Hartranft is the present Auditor General, and will remain so until the end of his term, which will close, as above stated, in about six months from this time. The law states, "and in case any vacancy should occur in either of said offices (Auditor and Surveyor General) by death, resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled by appointment of the Governor," etc. But is there any vacancy? We think not; Dr. Stanton was not the Auditor General, and could not be for half a year yet. The law, it appears to us, only contemplated a vacancy, actually occurring by the death, resignation, etc., of the acting Auditor General, which it would be necessary to fill immediately, in order that the affairs of the office might not be interrupted. This is plain to our mind, and the present sad contingency is not provided for by the act of 1850. But, unless that law is changed by the Legislature, the election for Auditor General, etc., can only take place every three years, and it having already taken place in 1871, can not occur again until 1874. This is the only provision which prohibits the ordering of another election in the present case, and it will have to be changed before this can be done. This ought to be done immediately upon the assembling of the Legislature, as it clearly was never intended to authorize the Governor to appoint an officer for the full period of three years, when the people of the State could just as well elect one. Governor Geary, we are quite sure, will not object to this course being pursued, as it relieves him of the responsibility of filling the office.

It seems that the Supreme Court has, after all, settled the general principle that the death of a man elected to office, but who has not qualified, does not create a vacancy in that office which the Governor can fill by appointment.

In October, 1848, Oliver Brooks was elected in Philadelphia, Clerk of the Orphans Court. November 7, 1848, he died, before he had been commissioned or had an opportunity to qualify. The Governor construed this as creating a vacancy, and appointed a man named Broom to fill the place. The previous incumbent, Hanley, refused to vacate; and suit was brought on a writ of quo warranto before the Supreme Court to test his right to hold over, and the right of the Governor to appoint. (See 9th. Barr, 513.)

The Supreme Court in this case decided that death, after election and before qualification, does not create a vacancy. A man, that committee said, must not only be elected, but he must be commissioned and sworn and give bonds, before his death can create a vacancy. He must in other words, be in office, before his death, or his death cannot create a vacancy in it.

Now, as Dr. Stanton died on the 5th of November, before he had been commissioned, or sworn, or given bonds, all of which the act of 1850 requires of him, it follows that he was not in office at the time of his death and that therefore his death creates no such vacancy as the Governor can fill.

The necessary conclusion is that as the law of 1850 does not provide for such a contingency, it becomes the duty of the next Legislature to supply the deficiency by enacting that, as in the case of county officers, the incumbent shall hold over until his successor is duly chosen and qualified, and by providing for an election at the annual election in 1872.

EPISCOPAL LATITUDINARIANISM.

From recent intelligence received from Scotland it appears that some of the high dignitaries of the English Episcopal Church are as much given to "schismatical latitudinarianism" as are the Tyngs and Cheneys of this country. The Bishop of Winchester and the Archbishop of York having been on a holiday tour and enjoying the hospitality of Mr. Ellice, M. P., in the parish of Invergarry, consented to conduct religious service in the Presbyterian Church of that parish. Dr. Wilberforce adhered closely to the modes and forms of worship usually observed in the Presbyterian churches of the land of Knox. Dr. Thompson, however, was not so successful. His memory failed him, and he was unable to go through the service without the aid of the printed page. It is stated that at the close of the sermon, he attempted to offer a prayer of his own composition, but in this he failed, and was unable to finish it without casting a glance at the manuscript which lay before him. The Archbishop appeared in the pulpit without lawn sleeves, mitre, or any of the usual ecclesiastical vestures peculiar to the Anglican Church. He did not even don the Geneva pulpit gown which is generally worn by the Presbyterian ministers of different denominations in Scotland.

The Ritualists and High-churchmen of the United Kingdom would not believe the report when first put in circulation, that these distinguished prelates had so far ignored the doctrine of apostolic succession and ecclesiastical exclusiveness as to officiate in a Presbyterian church. But when the truthfulness of the report could no longer be called in question, the advocates of Ritualism and clerical millinery exploded themselves with fire and thunder, and hurled unmeasured denunciation on the heads of the mitred dignitaries who had the effrontery to fraternize with "Schismatics." The Church Times strongly condemns this ecclesiastical affiliation with a "Presbyterian sect," and wishes to know how the Bishop of London can, on any principle of justice or common sense, inflict censure or punishment of any kind on the Rev. Dr. Spencer, of the English metropolis, for officiating within the unconsecrated walls of a "Baptist chapel', in Dublin, "if the most Rev. Dr. Thompson and the Right Rev. Dr. Wilberforce are to go unpunished for committing a very similar offence."

Some of the journals which represent the Low Church Evangelicals express themselves highly gratified, on the other hand, at the occurrence, and claim that this "active and open fraternization with the Established Church of Scotland" is a masterly stroke of policy on the part of the Episcopal Beach, the object of which is to secure the "Residuary," or Established Church of Scotland, as an ally to prevent the disestablishment of the English Episcopal Church. However this may be, the conduct of the Most Rev. and Right Rev., at Invergarry, is an active and practical yielding of some of the most cherished distinctive doctrines for which Anglican Episcopacy has ever contended.

But if the "King can do no wrong," these gentlemen should not be visited with the displeasure of a gorgeous ritualism. They only followed the example, in some degree, of Queen Victoria, the temporal head of the English Church, who received the Sacrament of the Supper, a short time since, in a Scottish Presbyterian Church at the hands of an "un-licensed" and "un-ordained" Presbyterian clergyman!

Bishop Eden, of Inverness, comes to the rescue of the offending and offensive prelates in a published letter, in which he states that the use of the Parish Church of Invergarry was obtained for the Bishop of Winchester, who wished to give his generous host, Mr. Ellice, M. P., his family and guests, the benefit of an Episcopal service. To this letter of Bishop Eden, Rev. Alexander Cameron, one of the parish clergymen of Scotland, replies that there was a distinct understanding among all the parties concerned that the English prelates would observe, during the services, "the usual order of Presbyterian worship."

But in order to increase the disatisfaction, and arouse a more indignant ire among the Ritualists and High Church party, Bishop Philpott has since officiated in the same church.

The ecclesiastics of the British Isles are puzzled to know what the result of this "new departure" from the old land marks, and breaking down of sectarian barriers, may be. One thing is certain, the religious denominations of Christendom are being attracted more closely to each other, and the time is not far distant when "sectarian names" will be greatly reduced in number.

BALTIMORE.

The Baltimore American, referring to our article, commenting on the recent speech of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, says:

"We have heretofore stated our convictions that the efforts of a few professional politicians to make personal capital by placing Baltimore in the attitude of condoning the Ku-Klux villainies of the South, and reproving the National Administration for its endeavors to restore a reign of law and order, were calculated to do the city great injury. We at home know well enough that when intelligent men profess to believe that President Grant in pursuing his present campaign against the Ku-Klux with a motive of persecuting the Southern people, they are persistently shutting their eyes and closing their ears to the truth, but the country at large takes it for granted that Baltimore as a whole will not recognize the facts, and stubbornly insist on backing up the bands of midnight raiders whom the Government is now suppressing. Just now, when the wisdom and justice of the prosecutions are so completely proven by the voluntary surrenders and confessions of hundreds of Ku-Klux, it is particularly unfortunate that Baltimore should be placed before the country in such a light. It hurts us not only in public estimation, but also in our trade interests. But a few weeks ago we were exulting over the commercial benefits that were to accrue from the opening of a new line of railroad between this city and Pittsburgh. Such expectations were not without a substantial basis, and, indeed, to some extent they have already been realized; but this unlucky movement on the part of some of our municipal politicians has certainly injured the prospects of our commercial relations with the great city of Western Pennsylvania. We have only to reply that the sober sense of a majority of our people is not represented by any of these Ku-Klux demonstrations, and to ask that these harsh judgments may be suspended.

We are glad to learn that the wild utterances of the sympathizers with the Ku-Klux are repudiated by the "sober sense of a majority" of the people of Baltimore, and take unusual pleasure in making the fact known. We presume the ten thousand, who are said to have listened to the Hon. Reverdy in his harangue, are an average sample of Democracy.

THE LATE DR. STANTON.

Statement of the True Cause of his Death.

BEAVER, PA., Nov. 9, 1871.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

The lamentable death of our friend, Dr. Stanton, has been so variously explained, that it is due to his memory that a truthful statement of the case should be given to the public.

About six weeks ago Dr. Stanton made two post mortem examinations, in doing which he had to handle, for over an hour, decomposing tissue and inhale the impure air from the opened bodies. No immediate bad result was noticed; but two weeks ago he spoke to his professional friends about it, and said he believed his system had been slightly poisoned, as he had not felt perfectly well since the examinations. Last Friday a small erysipelas inflammation appeared on his left cheek, accompanied by a slight chill; on Saturday, at 5 P. M., the erysipelas involved the whole of the cheek and one-half of the nose. There was also a slight fever. The portion of the face involved in the disease was exceedingly tender, and he said the burning in it gave him no rest. As his physician was leaving him, he remarked that he had lost so much sleep for several nights, that he seemed to have got past his rest, and thought it best to take a small injection of morphia to enable him to pass the night comfortably. His physician offered to give him the injection, but he said he would administer it himself, as he did not wish to take it until near bedtime. At this time Dr. Stanton was cheerful, but manifested no excitement. He was not confined to bed, and he walked about the room with almost his usual vigor.

Dr. Stanton took the morphia between 7 and 8 P. M., inserting it deeply into inner the part of the arm near its junction with the shoulder; the dose was about one grain. For a while afterwards he conversed pleasantly with his family and then went to sleep. About half-past nine P. M. his wife became alarmed at the character of his breathing and finding it impossible to awake him sent quickly for neighboring physicians. Medical attendance reached him by 10 P. M. His breathing was then stertorous, his heart's action feeble and irregular, his pupils greatly contracted, his extremities cold and his stupor profound. Every remedy and appliance known to science were promptly used for his relief, but without avail. He continued to sink until half-past one o'clock on Sabbath morning, when he expired. In the opinion of those physicians who witnessed this sad death scene, Dr. Stanton's death was caused by the unusually prompt and complete absorption of the morphia, prostrating a system already struggling with cadaveric poisoning. Thus perished one of the brightest ornaments of the medical profession; a victim to his professional devotion, and to the remedy he had so often successfully used to relieve the sufferings of his fellow-men.

STATE INCOME TAXES.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—On the 1st day of May, 1868, Gov. Geary approved a bill passed by the General Assembly, in which bill the following may be found: Sec. 6. "That every private banker and broker, and every unincorporated banking and saving institution and express company, and all corporations incorporated by or doing business in this Commonwealth, except, &c., &c., shall annually on the 1st day of November of each year report to the Auditor General under oath or affirmation setting forth the entire amount of net earnings or INCOME received by said individuals, company, &c., from all sources during the preceeding year, and upon such net earnings or income the said individuals, company, &c., as the case may be, shall pay to the Treasurer for the use of the State within sixty days thereafter three per centum upon such amount net earning or income, with a penalty for neglect of adding ten per centum to be added to the amount found due in the settlement of their accounts. I presume from this that should A earn $10,000 during the year ending October 31, 1871, and fail to make report before the 31st day of December, 1871, he would find on the books of the Auditor General a debit of $1,300! Now I wish to place this act along side the act of Congress of March 2, 1867, section 13, "That there shall be levied, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and incomes of every person residing in the United States, or of any citizen of the United States residing abroad, whether derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends or salaries, or from any profession, trade, employment or vocation carried on in the United States or elsewhere, or from any other source whatever, a tax of five (since changed to ten) per centum on the amount so derived over one thousand dollars (since changed to ten thousand dollars)." Here we find the Pennsylvania act levies a tax on the bankers, brokers, &c., on their net earning or income from all sources, whether they make one dollar or a million. While no tax is imposed on the farmer for State purposes, it is levied on the corporation, &c., without which the farmer could not live at all. The burden on the corporations of this State should at once be taken off and justice done by taxing property—all property—in the State equitably and ad valorem. There are men in the State who are growing rich by raising sheep, and there is no tax on sheep. Why not tax a thousand dollars' worth of sheep as well as a thousand dollars' worth of horses, cows or hogs?

And why, if the National income tax is so odious, is not the State income tax the same? And there is no $2,000 clause in it either. Can some one explain?

Chicago Churches.

We find the following characteristic letter from our old friend Mrs. Jane G. Swisshelm, in the New York Independent:

Of course, the readers of the Independent know that the New England Congregational church, of North Chicago, was burned, with the parsonage, the place of business of every member, and the home of every one save two who worshipped in it; that not only the buildings, but their contents, were consumed. They will, therefore, be prepared to appreciate the first meeting of pastor and people after such an unexampled calamity. This took place after morning service in the First Congregational church the second Sabbath after the fire. Mr. Chamberlin preached a beautiful sermon from the text "Man shall not live by bread alone"; and, by special invitation, those of his flock who were present remained to speak with him.

It was touching to see fifty or sixty of that once powerful band of working Christians gather around their leader, after such a stunning blow, with mutual congratulations and thanksgivings; and, as I sat apart looking, I felt like crying aloud: "Fear not, little flock. It is your father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

Of course, these waste places will be built up, principally by contributions from abroad; and it would be well if Christians, in aiding their Chicago brethren with money, would also help them to a supply of moral courage to resist the common American love of cheap finery, which shows itself no more offensively in cheap jewelry than in cheap imitations of the architectural glories of Greece and Rome. Let our churches begin to set the much needed example of sacrificing show to safety, and they will do much to correct the morbid taste for tawdry decorations which adds so incalculably to the fire risks in all our towns and cities, but especially in this city of shams, where property holders boast that their wooden cornices and mouldings are such good imitations of stone and iron that it is quite impossible to detect the difference by sight; but where wooden decorations are so common on brick, stone and marble houses as to excite no surprise.

The only United Presbyterian Church in Chicago is just across the street from where I sit. It was built by funds from abroad, at a cost of fifty thousand dollars. The walls are solid brick and stone. The roof, of pine shingles, shoots up into unsightly prominence, requiring near one-third more shingles and sheeting than would have made a roof to turn the rain. It is surrounded by a "gingerbread" wooden cornice, and surmounted by great towering filagree pinnacles of painted wood. A spark would ignite this mass of kindlings, and from their great elevation a high wind would scatter them in brands amid the lower heaps of kindlings which surround it on every side. On the same square are nine brick and stone houses going up now; and to-day there are a set of carpenters busy putting up six feet of kindlings along the front edge of the roof! Amid all the hurry of finding shelter for the houseless before winter sets in, a large part of the skilled labor of the city is spent in putting up fancy wooden cornices, and so getting ready for the next great conflagration.

The only Scotch Covenanter church here has meekly copied in pine-wood what her ancient enemy, Popery, has done in Parian marble, and is very much ornamented with wooden horns. The first Congregational, one of the most beautiful and substantial churches in the city, is a mass of wooden ornaments inside. "Heavy woodwork" is the glory of American architecture; and where it is excluded from the outside the builders find compensation in a double quantity within. So, when burning time comes, the walls, which might be but little injured from the burning out of floors and doors, are decomposed by the added heat of consuming the wooden decorations.

Whatever excuse there may be for building cheap wooden houses, there can be no sufficient reason for erecting the elaborate and expensive wooden structures so common all over the land; and fancy wooden decorations on brick and stone buildings are little short of madness. If the fearful lesson taught by the Chicago fire be well learned and improved by the American people, it will be worth to the world all it has cost this deeply afflicted community.

Greater than Chicago.

As terrible as the fire at Chicago was, and still as far as suffering goes, it has been distanced in olden times. Probably the greatest conflagration that ever visited a city was that which devastated London in 1666. It followed upon the great plague, which had carried off one-third of the population in the previous year, and swept over nearly five-sixths of the space included within the city walls at that date. It lasted four days, and the ruins covered four hundred and thirty-six acres. It destroyed eighty-nine churches (including St. Paul's), the Royal Exchange, the Custom House, Guildhall, Zion College, and many other public buildings, besides thirteen thousand two hundred private houses. Four hundred streets were entirely laid waste, and about two hundred thousand of the inhabitants of the city were obliged to encamp for some time in the open fields of Islington and Highgate.

THE MARTYRS OF NEGLECT.

It is not too much to say that tens of thousands are now suffering from biliousness, indigestion, constipation, periodical fevers, general debility, and nervous affections, who might be restored to perfect health within a month or less by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The multitudes who have been cured of these and other ailments by the use of this well-known specific are always ready to testify to its virtue as a preventive and a remedy. They are spread over the whole country; they are eager to praise and recommend it; and yet, notwithstanding its vast popularity, there are many invalids, and many who are continually exposed to the epidemical diseases, against which it is a sure protection, who, either through indifference or incredulity neglect to seize the opportunity to cure and means of prevention, which they have only to reach out their hands to obtain. This is strange; it is one of the anomalies of human nature which it is impossible to account for or explain. It is, however, quite certain that every day the number of these Martyrs of Neglect is diminishing. This is proved by the statistics of the sales of the great remedy. During the present fall the demand for it has increased beyond all precedent, and it seems as if in the end the entire community would realize the important fact, that when all other medicines prescribed for the above complaints fail, it can and does effect a cure. As a protection against the diseases most common at this season, there is nothing comparable with it.

Finance and Trade.

NEW YORK, November 9, 1871.

Gold weak, opening at 111½ and closing at 111⅜@111½. Loans opened at from 1-64 to 2 per cent. for use, and later from 2 per cent. to 1-32 for carrying. Clearances $58,750,000. There were thirty-seven bids for Government gold, amounting to about $8,272,000 at from 110.30 to 111.76; awards $2,000,000 at from 111.61 to 111.76. Governments have been dull and barely steady all day. The stock market was generally heavy throughout the day, with a gradual decline in prices. The decline ranged from ½ to 1½ per cent., and was most marked in Lake Shore, Pacific Mail, Wabash, Erie, Northwestern common, Rock Island and Ohio & Mississippi. Western Union was strong until the close, when it fell off. Dealings were well distributed, but not large. Lake Shore closed at 102⅞ dividend on 84½ extra dividend, and 78½ for scrip. Money firm at at 5 to 7. State bonds steady, with a better feeling.

Sterling Exchange, bankers bills 108¾.

GOVERNMENTS.—U. S. sixes of 1881, 115¾; 5-20s of '62, 111¾; do '64, 111¾; do '65, 111¾; do new, 113¾; do '67, 114; coupons of '68, 114½; 10-40s, 109; currency 6s, 112¾. Money 5 and 6.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, November 9, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4 cts; refined do, 4½@4¾; Pearls, 9¾; Pots, 7½; Nitrate Soda, 4½@4¾.

APPLES—The receipts are again increasing and with no improvement in the demand, the market is dull and prices barely maintained; $1,50@2 per bbl for common to fair and $2.50@3 for prime to choice. Private advices from Philadelphia report that market as bad, if not worse, than our own, so that there is no chance to ship eastward.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of prime to choice, in small packages, at 65@70 cts.

BEANS—Continue slow and with increased arrivals, prices are weak and tending downward; we continue to quote for small lots in store, $2,50@3 per bushel for prime to choice navy.

BUTTER—There is a good demand for strictly prime roll and we can report sales at 21@22. Common and medium butter dull and unchanged.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is being sold in small lots at $4.25@4.50 per cwt.

BROOM CORN—Is reported moderately active and quotations are given at 8@11 cts for common red to prime hurl; sales of 5 cars medium quality, to arrive, at 9 cts.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 30@33c.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of Jersey cultivated at $11@12 and Sackett's Belle Berries at $18 per pound.

CIDER—Is generally reported slow, though prices remain unchanged, $5@8 per bbl.

CORN MEAL—Is very quiet and the demand is mainly of a retail character; may be quoted in small lots at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2.50@3.00 per bbl; Rosendale, $4,00@4.50; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4.50.

CHEESE—Is reported steady but unchanged. Prime New York Goshen, 15¾@16; prime Ohio Goshen, 15@15½; Factory, 14@14½; Dairy 13@13½.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet and unchanged; 22½@22¾, in a jobbing way for standard brands.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches quiet and unchanged; halves, 10½@11; mixed, 8@8¾; quarters, 7@7½. Apples—6@6½ for good southern and 7@7½ for prime bright western.

EGGS—The supply continues very light and fresh sell readily at 29@30.

FLOUR—Minnesota flours are still quoted at $7.75, though it is reported that some dealers are cutting under this quotation; however, it is alleged that genuine Minnesota's cost about $7.52 delivered here, so that even at $7.75 the margin is small; it should also be borne in mind that dealers have to pay cash, in buying but in selling they usually have to give 30 to 60 days time. Red winter wheat flour, unchanged at $7.25@7.50. Rye Flour $5,50@5.75.

FEATHERS—No. 1 live geese feathers quoted at 72@73 cts for round lots—usual advance in a small way.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue meagre, but, with only a limited demand, the market is slow and prices unchanged, $1,40@1,43 for good to prime red, and 3@5 cts more for white. Oats continue quiet and rather weak, though not quotably lower—45@46 for good mixed to prime white; the arrivals are not large, but for some reason or other the demand has fallen off, and some dealers are anxious to realize. Corn is slow, but without quotable change; new crop, 55@60; old, 70@72. Rye is quoted at 85@90, buying and selling. The market for Barley is quiet and anything under No. 1 is slow sale; one of our largest brewers quoted to us to-day at 85 for choice spring, and 90 for choice fall.

GROCERIES—The market for Coffee is devoid of anything particularly new or important; in New York the dead-lock still continues, and the feeling between the "bulls" and "bears" is as determined as ever: the former (importers and other large holders) are holding on like grim death, refusing to make the slightest concession, while the latter are "bearing" the market to the best of their ability. The situation, although unsatisfactory to the trade generally, as it has placed an embargo on business, is interesting nevertheless, and the result is being looked for with great anxiety. The "bears" have the advantage in this, that having no stock they are under no expense in carrying it, and this is a very important point, particularly just now, as money is very scarce. The "bulls" are reported as being men of means and backbone, but they may become worried after while, and just as soon as they manifest a disposition to unload, the market will undoubtedly weaken and prices recede. In regard to Sugars there are no new features worthy of notice; private advices from the east report a firmer feeling, but there is no advance. Molasses very dull. Syrups, as noted the other day, are off 3@5 cts per gallon.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 13¾; A. 12¾; B, 12½; Ex. C, 12¼; C. Yellow, 12½. Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11¼; Prime, 11; Good, 10¾. Cuba Sugars, 10¾@11. Demarara, 12¼@12¾. Sugar House Sugars—Knight's Extra C. Yellow, 11¾; C. C. 11¾; other grades, 9@11. New Orleans Sugars—None in market.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 25; Prime, 24; Good, 23; Fair, 22@22½. Java, 28@30. Laguayra, 25@26. Mocha, 45. Roasted Coffee, pure, 27. Lower grades, 24@25.

SYRUPS—Havemyer & Elder's, 72. White Honey, 72. Lovering's, 60. Durant's, 75. Sugar Drips, 80; Brune's, 72; other grades, 48@60. New Orleans Molasses, 60@65.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9¾; Good, 9¼; Fair, 8¾. Rangoon, 8. Patna, 8¾.

SPICES—Pepper, 25. Allspice, 18. Cassia, 55. Cloves, 25. Nutmegs, $1,40.

HIDES—Green Salted, 10½@11½; Green Butcher's, 8; Dry Flint, 21@22; Green Calf Skins, 14@15; Green Salted Calf, 17@18.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2½@2¾ cts.

HONEY—Quoted at 25@35 cts per lb—but few sales above 30.

HEMP—Kentucky rough, $165 per ton; single dressed, $240; Scutched, $190@195.

HAY—Is quiet and unchanged; $20@25 per ton for common to prime baled; we can report a sale of 3 cars of good, tight pressed at $25, delivered at the stock Yards.

LARD OIL—No. 1 Extra quoted at 83@85 and No. 2 at 58.

LIME—Perrysburg white, $2,00@2.25 per bbl; Cleveland $2.25; Eastern, $1.75.

MILL FEED—Is quoted in a jobbing way, at $22@23 per ton for Bran; $24@26 for Seconds; $34@36 for Middlings, and $44@45 for Oil Meal.

NUTS—Chestnuts, $3,50@4 per bushel. Walnuts, 65@70 cts. Shelbarks, $1,50@2.

ONIONS—Generally reported dull, and the supply is unusually large; prices however, remain unchanged, $2,50@2.75 per bbl for common reds and $3,00@3.25 for silver skins.

POULTRY—Live Chickens in demand; may be quoted at 55@60 cts per pair, by the coop.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows may be quoted at 60 cts, by the car load, and 65@70 in store. Jersey Sweets, scarce and firm at $3.75@4.00.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, November 9, 1871.

We find that Pittsburgh refiners are not alone in complaining of the high price of crude, as compared with refined, and, in consequence, the unsatisfactory and unprofitable condition of the refining business. The same state of affairs exists at Cleveland, New York and other points where the business is carried on to any extent. We notice in the last issue of the Titusville Herald a communication, of which some Titusville refiner is undoubtedly the author, on this subject, instigated by the recent marked decline in crude. The writer says "that at present rates the loss to the refiner, on the average, is 75 cents per bbl, and that most of them have, or are preparing to, shut down all through the country. As a class, refiners have not looked so much to their own interests as producers—they have no Refiners' Association similar to the Producers' Association. If refiners refused to either buy, contract, deliver or sell, except at a standard margin of profit, the whole matter would regulate itself, and the spasmodic fluctuation in prices and ruinous shutting down of large and expensive works would not occur so often. One of the principal supports of the region is the large and rapidly increasing refining interest, and what affects their prosperity affects the whole financial body. The large amount of oil which has been held at high figures for an advance, will probably glut the market at a time when the refiners have shut down, and the demand from abroad is not likely to be materially increased, and if refiners know themselves they will not be likely to start up again until they can do so at a good margin of profit."

Market to-day very quiet; no sales reported, prices without quotable change. Crude—seller until January 1st, 11@11½; buyer same time, 11½@11¾. Parker, immediate delivery, $4,00@4.05. Refined—November, 22¾@22⅞; December, 22⅞.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly with about 24 inches in the channel. Weather moderated towards evening, and the wind having changed to the east, the indications for rain were, in consequence, more favorable.

Capt. W. S. Evans contemplates dismantling his recent purchase, the Lorena, and placing her machinery in a new boat, now under contract.

The John F. Tolle, Com. Kountz's mammoth stern wheeler, is almost completed.

There are several new tow boats in process of construction.

Capt. Wm. Troy late of the Red River packet Belle Rowland, reached home on Wednesday. Mr. James Davidson, steward on the same steamer, got home some days ago.

—The St. Louis Dispatch says: From a gentleman who arrived from Henry yesterday, we learn that the Illinois river dam at that point was completed last Saturday. The lock, which is seventy-five feet wide and three hundred and twenty-five feet long, will soon be finished. The dam and lock will cost $500,000 .... We also clip the following from the same paper: Several officers and river men from Fort Rice arrived this morning. They came from Fort Rice to Sioux City in the mountain boat, Far West, making the trip in twenty-four days. At Sioux City they took the cars. They report the steamer Ackley below Fort Sully; the Silver Lake at Fort Thompson, and the Nellie Peck wrecking the Ida Rees near Fort Thompson.

—Captain A. J. Flesher, of Murraysville, Jackson County, West Virginia, has contracted to build a new towboat for Captain Horne, of Wheeling, for the Emma Logan's machinery. Captain Flesher has also contracted to build another large wharfboat, and will commence work on it as soon as McCoy's wharfboat is off the ways. Parties are negotiating with Flesher for the building of a new packet steamer.

—The Wade Hampton, recently sunk in the Mississippi near Donaldsonville was insured as follows: Cincinnati—Franklin, $2,500; Enterprise, $5,000; Firemen's, $2,500; American, $3,000; Western, $2,500; Ohio Valley, $5,000; Union, $3,000; Commercial, $5,000; National, $4,000; Farmers', $2,500; Ætna, $2,000; Citizens', $2,000. Albany Companies, $4,000.

—A Steamboatmens' Association was organized in Evansville last Thursday. Sixteen steamboatmen signed the constitution, and Captains H. T. Dexter, A. M. Dusouchet, G. J. Grammer, Gus. Lemoke and Allen J. Duncan were appointed delegates to the Louisville Convention.

—Capt. Dave Campbell sold the ferry-boat Katie Keiser, at St. Louis, to Capt. C. T. King of Cape Girardeau, for $3,500, and in return bought from the latter gentleman the Effie Bofinger, a ferry plying at Cape Girardeau, for $3,500. The Effie Bofinger is 85 feet in length, 16 feet beam and 4 feet depth of hold.

—Captain Robert Carnes, formerly of the Natoma, and Captain Hendricks, of the Lizzie, are negotiating with Hambleton for the hull of a little steamer 115 feet long, 26 feet beam, and 3½ feet hold, for the Upper Red river trade. They design calling her the Duke of Orleans.

—Capt. S. C. Baker, steamboat agent at St. Louis, while out in the country hunting a few days ago, was accidentally shot in the face with bird-shot by one of his companions. The wounds inflicted are quite severe.

—Captain Sencerbox arrived at St. Paul from St. Louis with the Dexter, last Friday, being the first through trip for over three months, and it is probable that her return trip will be the last through trip from St. Paul to St. Louis for the season of 1871-72.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says: Captain John L. Rhodes arrived from Pittsburgh, and may attend the Louisville Convention to-day. He has concluded to lengthen the Exchange 33 feet, either here or at Madison.

—Captain Joseph Kinney is to have the Fanny Lewis lengthened sixty feet as soon as the river will permit of her being brought to Madison.

—Capt. Will. P. Fowler, formerly chief clerk of the Idlewild, is lying dangerously ill at Paducah.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ PITTSBURGH HOMŒPATHIC MEDICAL INSTITUTE, 264 PENN ST.—DR. AUGUSTUS SLEE, long and well-known as the acting physician and manager of Dr. William Butler Whittier's business of this city, takes this opportunity to inform the public and his patients that he has opened the above Institute for the treatment and cure of all special and nervous diseases. A most successful practice for eighteen years is sufficient guarantee in the future. Very special attention given to Spermatorrhœa or Nervous Debility, which is permanently cured. The effect of mercury eradicated. Long standing constitutional diseases skilfully treated and cured. The Doctor gives particular attention to female complaints. Send for the Doctor's pamphlet, a treatment in plain language, on venereal diseases: sent by mail for two stamps. All old patients who desire to consult the Doctor are requested to call, as no further charge will be made for consultation, which is always free at the office. au8:x78

☞ $1,000 FORFEIT—NO SUGAR OF LEAD.—We pledge ourselves to the public, and give them the most solemn assurances, under a penalty of one thousand dollars, that the "LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER" does not contain a particle of Sugar of Lead, or injurious drugs in any form whatever, and that it is an innocent preparation, incapable of doing the least injury.

WM. P. SWAYNE,
(Dr. Swayne & Son.)

Affirmed and subscribed before me, this seventh day of July, A. D. 1871.

PETER HAY, Alderman,
Twelfth ward, Philadelphia.

WHY "LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER" IS SO HIGHLY ESTEEMED AND UNIVERSALLY USED.

BECAUSE—It never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color, softness and beauty.

BECAUSE—It will positively stop the hair from falling, and cause it to grow on bald heads in all cases where the follicles are left.

BECAUSE—It will restore the natural secretions, remove all dandruff, itching, and cures all diseases of the scalp.

BECAUSE—It will do all that is promised, never failing to preserve the original color of the hair to old age.

BECAUSE—It is warranted to contain no mineral substance, and easily applied as water, not staining the skin a particle or soiling anything.

BECAUSE—It has become a staple article, and no Toilet is complete without it, and every leading Druggist and dealer in toilet articles sells it.

Price, 75 cents a bottle. Dr. SWAYNE & SON, Philadelphia, Sole Agents for the United States. Sold in Pittsburgh by McCLARRAN & McKENNAN, 85 Market street and opposite P. O., and all Druggists and dealers everywhere. se8:MWF HOME NEWS.

Wife Desertion.—Alderman Smith, of Allegheny, yesterday committed Levi Richey to jail for court, in default of 500 bail, for deserting and refusing to support his wife and children. The Alderman tried to have the parties make up their differences, but they couldn't see it in that light.

Rain, rain, is hoped for by all classes—by consumers and dealers in coal; by the citizens of every degree; by these latter especially, because rain is our only scavenger. The street scrapers and sweepers, who formerly at long intervals removed some of the accumulations of street-dirt, have wholly disappeared—at least have not been seen on duty, for many months. The condition of our streets is disgraceful, even the sidewalks, are in most places more foul and dirty than were the boulevards of Paris before the siege. To verify this, observe the flags in front of the Post Office and New City Hall, and elsewhere generally. An enforcement of the ordinance on sweeping streets at this time, would prove a precious sanitary expedient. Let the authorities try it on and let the fire plugs play on the gutters, until they are thoroughly cleansed, and our tables of mortality will show a decline.

No Sale.

Yesterday the Trustees of the Central Presbyterian Church offered their Smithfield street property at public sale, but had to withdraw it for want of bidders. Why it went a begging is hard to tell. The largest bid was $54,000, and it was the bid of a trustee. We know of $60,000 offered at private sale, but several persons who went to the sale for the purpose of bidding would not enter the contest, for the reason, as they remarked, "the trustees were bidding, and they would not bid as long as anything but a bonafide bid was taken." The property is worth $65,000, and we have no doubt can be sold for that.

Those Rope Cases.

Hearings were had yesterday before Mayor Brush in the cases of the parties charged with stealing rope from the steamboat "Hercules," Captain McDonald. The offense was charged on William May by Samuel V. Carter, and on Robbert Stoddard by Officer William Fowler. The case was thoroughly investigated and the parties discharged.

After the adjustment of these cases, William May re-appeared, and made information charging Samuel V. Carter, the prosecutor in his case, with perjury. A warrant was issued and Mr. Carter will be arrested and have a hearing, when perhaps something of interest may be developed.

Villainous Attempts.

Some dastards have been recently trying to throw the trains from the track of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad. The individuals engaged in this villainous work have been taking considerable pains to make a wreck certain, and it seems almost a miracle that they have so far been unsuccessful. The place selected for their operation by these villains is the vicinity of Edgeworth station. A few mornings since, a freight train going west made a most miraculous escape from being thrown from the track, by a log placed on the rails in a position that the villains, no doubt, thought would ensure disaster. Yesterday morning another log was fortunately discovered on the track just in time to save a freight going west from being thrown off and wrecked.

Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, D. D.

This gentleman, once the loved rector of Trinity Church, in this city, will arrive in town to-day and be the guest of John H. Shoenberger, Esq. Dr. Lyman has resided during the last ten or twelve years in different parts of Continental Europe; was for a time rector of the American Episcopal Chapel at Rome, and has visited nearly every part of the Old World, including Egypt, Syria and Palestine. His old parishioners and friends will crowd Trinity Chapel on Sunday to see him and once more to hear his familiar voice. The Doctor with his family returned some months ago to this country, and has accepted a call to the rectorship of Trinity Church, San Francisco, where his future residence will be fixed.

Swindling a Lawyer.

Yesterday, Wm. I. Maginn, Esq., a member of the legal profession, made an information before Alderman McMasters, charging D. S. Acor, a painter, with false pretense, alleging that Acor owes him fifteen dollars, unpaid fees for professional services. The attorney states that Acor wanted him to attend to a case for him, promising to pay fifteen dollars. Mr. Maginn desired to see the ready cash ere he started. Acor did not have it about him, but showing him a house which was being painted, told the attorney that he had the contract for that job, and that when it was finished he would get $100, and would then pay him for his services. Mr. Maginn acquiesced and attended to the case, but now finds that Acor's representations about the house were false, and the $15 is still not forthcoming. A warrant has been served on Acor.

Brother Jonathan.

The origin of this term, as applied to the United States, is as follows: When General Washington, after being appointed commander of the army of the revolutionary war, went to Massachusetts to organize it, he found a great want of ammunition and other means for its defense; and on one occasion it seemed that no means could be devised for the necessary safety. Jonathan Trumbull, the elder, was the Governor of the State of Connecticut; and the General, placing the greatest reliance on his excellency's judgment, remarked, "We must consult brother Jonathan on the subject." The General did so, and the Governor was successful in supplying many of the wants of the army; and thenceforth, when difficulties arose, and the army was spread all over the country, it became a by-phrase, "We must consult Brother Jonathan;" and this name has now become a designation for the whole country, as John Bull has for England.

A Sarcastic Youth Taken Down.

A young man of our acquaintance was riding home in the street cars a short time since when a lady got in. The car was crowded, and our gallant friend immediately rose and gave her his seat, which she took without making any particular demonstration of thankfulness for the favor received.

He, thinking to administer a slight rebuke, pretended that she had said something.

"What did you say, Madam?" he inquired, politely.

"I did not say anything," she replied.

"Oh, I thought you said thank you," said he. He rode along in silence, feeling all the satisfaction which arose from the performance of a virtuous and worthy duty. Soon the conductor came around, and our teacher of manners felt in his pocket for a ticket, when he was informed that the lady to whom he gave his seat had paid his fare. Our friend lost all interest in the ride, and thought he would rather walk the remainder of the way home.

The Girard Fire Insurance Company.

This is a Philadelphia Company of which some have spoken as an old fogy institution, because of its habitual care and circumspection in placing risks. This is the best kind of fogyism for policy holders. Mr. Thomas Craven, the President, Mr. Alfred S. Gillett, the Vice-President and Treasurer, and Mr. James B. Alvord, the Secretary of the Company, are all gentlemen distinguished in Philadelphia, and known throughout the State for their business ability, large experience and unimpeachable integrity. Under their advice no risks were taken at Chicago, and under their advice the stockholders, in view of the general distrust arising from the recent Chicago catastrophe, have added $100,000 to the Company's capital, whereby its strength is placed above doubt or suspicion.

It is a further earnest of the good management of the Girard, that it has kept Mr. R. D. Thompson at the head of its Pittsburgh agency for the past twelve years. Mr. Thompson's office is at the corner of Wood street and Fourth avenue, where with the much increased claims of his agency to the public confidence. We predict a large accession of business.

Systematic Robbery on the South Side.

Of late the sneak thieves on the South Side have been very busy, as the following instances show: The other evening they entered the shop of a Mr. Moonshein, a butcher, on Sarah street, between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets. His money-drawer, with its contents, was taken from its place and carried off. We were unable to learn the amount of money stolen. The next case was that of Mr. Joseph Miller, proprietor of a grocery store on Twelfth street, Birmingham. Having occasion to step out, he had scarcely left the store, when six men entered. While the most of them kept guard at the front and rear doors, one walked around the counter and, pulling open the money-drawer, took the sum of $75. In the back part of the drawer was a pocketbook containing $280, which the thieves in their haste failed to discover. The third case is that of Mr. Peter Slagle, who keeps a grocery and liquor store on Carson street, East Birmingham. His premises were invaded and the sum of $100 abstracted from a pair of pants left hanging in the store-room. None of the parties are positively known, but officers Curry and Philip Demmel have the matter in charge and will work the cases up if it is possible.

ROW ON THE HILL.

Man Badly Beaten in a Fight.

Alderman Shore yesterday took the information of Thomas Keefe, who preferred a charge against John Mulherron, of aggravated assault and battery. Keefe's statement is that a party of men, among whom was Mulherron, had been drinking pretty freely on the evening of October 28th, and that he, who had also been taking a little more than he should have done, fell in with them at the tavern of Dominick Gallaher, on Webster avenue. From some cause not mentioned, he alleges that the whole party fell on him and abused him in a brutal manner, and in proof of his assertion he exhibited a badly swelled head and a face upon which mouths had been cut and noses erected in every possible situation, size and figure. His breast also seemed to badly cut up and bruised, and his entire body showed signs of most brutal treatment. Mulherron was the only one of the party that the prosecutor knew and for him Alderman Shore issued a warrant.

THE COURTS.

Allegheny Councils held regular monthly meeting last evening in the City Building.

Select Council.

JAMES McBRIER..........President.
J. R. OXLEY..........Clerk.

President McBrier called this branch to order at half past seven o'clock. Present: Messrs. Huckenstein, Hall, Megraw, J. C. Patterson, Heagy, Omsler, Thompson, Reineman, Riddle, Moul, Wittmer, Wettach and President McBrier.

Minutes read and approved.

PETITIONS, &C.

Mr. Reineman presented a petition for the opening of Buchanan street. Referred.

Mr. Heagy, petition and remonstrance in relation to opening of Sheffield street. Laid over.

Mr. Riddle, petition for opening Slope alley. Referred.

Also, petition for water pipe on Webster street to Palo Alto street. Referred.

Mr. Huckenstein, petition from the citizens of the Seventh ward asking that the ward be sub-divided into two, or that a portion of the ward be added to Third ward. Referred.

Also petition for opening Henderson street. Referred.

FINANCIAL.

Mr. Riddle offered the report of the Committee on Finance, with resolutions, which were disposed of as noted.

Resolution authorizing payment of $450 to Warner, Carson & Co., for repaving Webster street. Lost.

Resolution authorizing payment of $100 to Charles Faulkner for amount of assessment of two feet of ground on Jackson street for the construction of a sewer. Passed finally.

Resolution for payment of $368.52 to James B Young for grading and paving of street in front of Westley Chapel. Passed finally.

Resolution for payment of $778 to Jacob H. Waters for costs in different suits in which the city was interested.

CONTROLLER'S REPORT.

Mr. Riddle presented the report of the Controller, showing expenditures for the month of October, of which the following is a recapitulation:

Salaries	$1,595.12
Fire Department	2,407.72
Streets	2,484.87
Wharves	94.34
Surveys	489.00
Police	3,614.83
Contingent Fund	94.81
Water Works	2,247.54
Gas	196.39
City Property	3,759.90
Total	$17,084.32

Report received and the bills ordered to be paid.

NEW SURVEYS.

Mr. Heagy, from the Survey Committee, presented the report of that Committee with ordinances which were disposed of as follows:

Ordinance for appointment of viewers on opening of Palo Alto street, from Taylor avenue to Jefferson street. Laid over. Ordinance for opening of Sheffield street, from Beaver avenue to the river. Passed finally.

THE WATER SUPPLY.

Mr. Wettach, Chairman of the Water Committee, presented a report recommending the purchase of a "Lowry Double Plunger Pump," with horizontal engine, for increasing the supply of water. The committee recommended this after a thorough examination of the whole matter. It was capable of lifting 12,000 gallons of water every twenty-four hours. The engine would weigh about 600,000 pounds and would cost 10¾ cents per pound for construction. The estimate of cost was as follows:

Engine	$63,000
Boilers	6,000
Foundation	10,000
Supervision and royalty in patent	5,000
Total	$94,000

The committee reported a resolution authorizing the committee to advertise for proposals and enter into contract for such an engine, boilers, pumps, &c., similar to plans submitted by Mr. Lowry, and authorizing him to supervise the work of erection.

After some discussion the resolution was passed finally.

The Committee also reported a resolution authorizing the laying of water pipes on Spring alley and Superior street, which was passed finally.

THE STREET DEPARTMENT.

Mr. J. C. Patterson presented the report of the Street Committee.

They reported adversely to changing the name of West Ohio street back to Western avenue, as it was formerly known; also adversely to petition of Charles Zehnder for damages for construction of sewer through his property.

The Committee recommended the passage of the ordinance for a sewer on Arch street, from Jackson street to North avenue.

The Committee also reported ordinances, which (after the report had been received and recommendations adopted) were disposed of as follows:

Ordinance for grading Lombard street; passed finally. Ordinance for sewer on First alley east of Arch street; passed finally.

Mr. Patterson for the Committee also offered the report of viewers on opening of Howard street. Report laid over.

Also, report of viewers on opening of Monterey street. Report confirmed.

Also, report of viewers on opening of Buena Vista street, which occasioned some discussion and was finally referred back to the viewers for a review.

CITY PROPERTY COMMITTEE.

Mr. Riddell presented the report of the Committee on City Property, asking for a transfer to their appropriation of $5,000. The report was accompanied by a resolution authorizing the transfer which was passed.

Also, resolution authorizing a warrant in favor of the Park Commission for $2338 for improving Third ward square, which was carried.

THE "HOSPITAL."

Mr. Megraw presented a communication from the Board of Health asking for an additional appropriation of $2,000 for hospital purposes, etc.

Referred to Finance Committee, with power to act.

The Chair stated the power to act might be added but it didn't amount to anything, as Councils by ordinance would have to make the appropriation.

Mr. Megraw explained that this method was adopted as there were some small bills to pay at once, and the idea was to provide funds for these before the next meeting of Councils. An ordinance would be brought in to make the appropriation asked.

Mr. Huckenstein, a resolution for gas lamps on First and Second streets, Third ward. Passed.

CITY CONTRACTS

Also, a resolution that all contracts hereafter let by a committee authorized by Councils, be let by a majority of the committee to which the business may be referred. Referred to Ordinance Committee with instructions to report ordinance.

Mr. Riddle presented an ordinance to repeal the ordinance, by which the name of Western avenue was changed to West Ohio street. The new ordinance authorized the original nomenclature. Lost

ANOTHER GRASS PLOT

Also, resolution instructing the City Engineer to report plan for improvement of First ward square similar to the Third ward square, and report estimates of cost—the weigh scales and hay market to be removed to the wharf.

Mr. Megraw said they already had plans for a market house in that square and he thought it would be more profitable to erect that proposed building than decorating it with "little bits of grass plots."

Mr. Huckenstein hoped Councils wouldn't compel people to go away down the wharf to buy hay.

Mr. Riddle thought a hay market in a public place square in the middle of the city was a disgrace; it was not tolerated in any other decent city.

President McBrier concurred in that opinion and thought the weigh scales should be removed.

The resolution was then voted down.

Mr. Moul, a resolution instructing the Street Committee to have North Canal street clear of wagons at night. Passed.

Adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

ALFRED SLACK..........President.
ROBT. DILWORTH..........Clerk.

This branch was called to order at half past seven o'clock, by President Slack.

The minutes of the previous meetings not previously read were read and approved.

PETITIONS &C.

Mr. Hunker, presented a petition for gas lamp on northwest corner of Federal and Lacock streets. Referred.

Also, petition for grading and paving Beaver street. Referred.

Mr. Walter, a petition calling attention to the use of North Canal street as a depot for unloading of bark, old bones &c., from the West Penn cars and contending that it was a nuisance to the residents in the vicinity who prayed for relief. In the same connection the gentleman offered an ordinance probiting the unloading of this freight on the street; also a second ordinance authorizing the property owners to erect a fence on the south line of the street at least three feet high.

Petition received, and both ordinance passed.

In S. C. they, with accompanying petition, were refused to the Committee on Ordinance. C. C. adhered and appointed Messrs Walter's Taggart and Dean a Committee on Conference.

Mr. Shipman, an ordinance repealing an ordinance which authorizes the extension of Western avenue from Shamrock alley to Wilkin's street, and the ordinance opening the avenue from Shamrock alley to Spruce street be re-enacted. Passed.

SANITARY.

Mr. Hastings, preamble and resolutions providing for the appointment of a committee of five to select a site and procure plans for a permanent city hospital, and report to Councils, provided no expense be incurred. Passed, and Messrs. Hastings, Braun and Knox appointed in behalf of C. C.

When the matter came up in Select Council, Mr. Riddell moved that it be referred to the Committee on Poor Fund. They knew more about the subject than any outside committee would know. It had been intimated to him that there would be enough money left after the erection of the new Poor House to erect a permanent hospital. He favored the erection of a hospital.

The paper was accordingly referred to Committee on Poor Farm.

Mr. Hunker, an additional section to the ordinance creating a Board of Health for Allegheny city. The section provides that every physician be required to furnish a certificate stating the name, age, color, residence, sex, whether married or single, &c., of any of their patients who die, and fixing a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $25 for not making such return, and also fixing the same penalty upon any undertaker for conducting any funeral without such certificate, which must after be returned to the Board of Health. Passed finally. S. C. referred to Ordinance Committee. C. C. receded and concurred.

Mr. Voegtly, resolution for flagstone crossing at corner of Madison avenue and Third avenue. Referred.

THE WHARVES.

Mr. Hastings, Chairman of the Committee on Wharves and Landings, presented a report embodying the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Committee on Wharves and Landings be authorized to contract with Mr. Louther at his proposal, viz: Forty cents per cubic yard for making Eighth ward wharf complete, according to plan adopted by Councils.

Resolved, That the Controller be and he is hereby authorized to certify a warrant in favor of James Orr to the amount of $642.93, being in full for making roadway at Allegheny avenue.

The Committee also reported that they had instructed the wharf master to have the Ferry Landing repaired.

Report referred and resolution adopted.

MORE LIGHT.

Mr. Walters, from the Committee on Gas, presented a report with the following.

Resolved, That the Superintendent of Water Works be, and he is hereby instructed to place lamps and posts as follows: Corner of Davis alley and Irwin avenue; corner of Beaver avenue and West Ohio street; on Fremont street at corners of Jackson and Franklin streets; on New Brighton Road, corner of St. Johns and Ford streets; Southeast corner of Lacock street and Vine alley; on Chartiers street at corner of Ridge avenue; and midway between Rebecca street and Ridge avenue; corner of Third street and Gerst alley; corner of Isabella street and Vine alley; northwest corner of Robinson and School streets; on East Ohio street opposite Sycamore; also on East Ohio street opposite Wackers brewery.

Resolved, That the Gas Committee be, and they are hereby requested to lay mains on River avenue, Eight ward, as promptly as may be convient.

Report received and resolutions adopted.

MARKET RECEIPTS.

Mr. Comley, chairman of the Committee on Markets submitted the report of that Committee showing the following receipts for October.

Clerk of Markets	$2,101 85
Second Ward Scales	433 65
Diamond Scales	233 47
Fourth Ward Scales	62 04
Total	$2,831 01

Received and filed.

BABCOCK FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

Mr. Dalzell, chairman of the Committee on Fire Engines presented a report with the following:

Resolved, That the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department be and he is hereby authorized to contract with parties representing the Babcock Fire Extinguisher for one medium sized apparatus for each company.

Report read and referred back to Committee.

THE ALARM BELL

business from Select Council was then taken up. The old report of the Committee on Fire Engines and Hose, recommending the erection of a fire alarm bell, in C. C. September 14, was approved: S. C. October 9, non-concurred; C. C. November 9, adhered to former action and asked for Committee of Conference, and appointed Messrs. McNeill, Taggart, and Cooke for C. C.

Report of viewers on opening of Church avenue in S. C. August 10, confirmed; C. C. August 10, non-concurred and referred to Engineer's office for further examination C. C. November 9, concurred.

Adjourned.

"GUS."

An Affecting Scene.

A tender and touching episode last evening in Allegheny varied the ponderous and solemn monotony which at times gathers around Council proceedings. The weighty affairs of State which hang so heavy at the hearts of the municipal Fathers having been disposed of a strange and mysterious whispering went the rounds, which seemed to have a magical effec in restoring lightsomeness and cheer. Somehow through this weird influence the Councilmen and spectators, and at last the reporters were induced to concentrate in the Common Council Chamber, and it was filled to repletion. A deep awe fell upon the assemblage as brief, but grave consultations were held among the favored few who understood the mystery; at last it began to reveal its hidden meaning as President McBrier ceased for a moment in his frantic efforts to destroy a fragrant Havana, and nodded approvingly to President Slack to "go on" and then smiled sweetly. Whereupon President Slack with a radiance that was equally as bland, went on slowly unveiling black vestments from what might have been a broom-handle, but which when exposed to the light proved to be a fine ebony cane, handsomely silver mounted. Holding it aloft, and advancing toward the venerable and now thoroughly agitated Messenger, Mr. A. M. Husselbaugh the holder of the handsome article proceeded with true Demosthenian fervor to speak a piece in which "faithfulness," and "the eleven years," and "many friends," and "slight token of appreciation" were intermingled so pleasantly and so happily as to fairly overcome the honored recipient of the speech and cane. He faltered and gazed amazed; then waved his red bandanna convulsively in the neighborhood of his visual organs, and wound up with a Boreas blast from his nose. This signal of distress called President McBrier to his relief, who, with tear-dimmed eyes and voice almost lost through deep emotion, responded to the kindly sentiments and the good wishes, and extolled the practical character of the gift, and gently insinuated that a re-election next year with a comfortable raise of salary would be equally acceptable, and forgot not to mention a general "thank you" all around.

And then "Gus" looked up through his tears and announced if he "was cut out for to speech, he would," but as "he had'nt be would'nt," whereat he smiled and the speakers smiled and the audience caught the contagion and everybody smiled—but the reporters who, true to duty, through the elements spoke, gravely seized the walking stick and found engraved upon its silver head, the inscription "To Mr. A. M. Husselbaugh, from his friends." The friends it was understood consisted of the city officials and a number of Councilmen who have often had occasion to note "Gus's" faithfulness to duty, and thus sought to give him a substantial token of their appreciation, and surround the donation with pleasant ceremonies which would linger as a brightness hereafter in his memory. "Gus," in his official capacity as Messenger, has long been an accessory to municipal Legislation—so long that the memory of many men "runneth not to the contrary," and the gift to a venerable and assiduous officer, though humble he might be, was as well merited as any like gift has ever been.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities Yesterday.

Some time ago Mr. J. B. Hill, of this city, had a quantity of lumber stolen, and a boy named Roney, another named Robert McNamee, alias "Slim Jim," and others, were charged with having committed the theft. Roney and some of the others were captured and punished, but "Slim Jim" withdrew from the city and bestowed his presence upon Johnstown. He returned to this place on Wednesday. Officers Rivers and Ruch became aware of his return, and yesterday visited his home in the Tenth ward, where they found and captured him.

Street Commissioner Hunter made information before the Mayor, charging E. P. Hatch with obstructing Smallman street with building material and rubbish. A hearing has not yet been appointed in the case.

A man named Tim O'Brien was arrested for disorderly conduct at the White House, and throwing a salt-cellar at a negro servant.

Alderman Shore took the information of Michael Kelly, who charged Mattie Gordon, (colored), with the larceny of a can of oysters from his store on Webster avenue, valued at forty-five cents. Held for a hearing.

Before Alderman Logan, John Gallaher was charged by Frantfetter with assault and battery, which consisted in his striking the prosecutor with a stone. Arrested, paid costs and discharged.

John D. Kirby appeared at Mayor Nichols' office and charged Jacob Foster with larceny as bailee of a valuable dog. Kirby was hunting and Foster called off the dog, which he refuses to give up. Warrant issued.

Julia Baxter preferred a charge of false pretences against Samuel Lesslief, alleging that he went to her house and engaged boarding, representing that he had $100 coming to him from a party in the Sixteenth ward, which was false, but upon which he obtained boarding to the amount of $18. Deputy Mayor Nichols issued a warrant.

Two drunks in the Lawrenceville lock-up yesterday morning. Fined one dollar and costs each, which they paid and went their ways rejoicing.

A hearing was had yesterday at the Mayor's office in the case of the South Side drivers, Powell, Kreban and Sweeney, charged with conspiracy. It resulted in the holding of each of them to bail for Court in the sum of $500.

Otto Heidenrich charged Emil Hoffman, before Alderman Smith, of Allegheny, with selling stolen goods. He alleges that he purchased a set of harness from the accused, which Mr. J. J. Gillespie, of Ross township, claims as his property. Warrant issued.

Alderman Smith also issued warrants for Robert Mellor and his wife Sarah, charged by Thomas Devereux with surety of the peace.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

A Police Officer Badly Injured.

Officer Jerry Gumbert, of the police force, stationed at the corner of Canal and Liberty streets, yesterday met with a quite serious and painful injury. Several days ago officers Gumbert and Weisenburn obtain leave of absence and took a hunting excursion down the Fort Wayne Railway, going near the Ohio line. About eleven or twelve o'clock yesterday, while passing through the woods in that neighborhood in search of game, they had occasion to pass along a ridge, to one side of which is quite a steep precipice. Here officer Gumbert made a misstep, and in order to save himself from falling over the precipice, was compelled to drop his gun—a shot gun, only one barrel of which was loaded. The lock of the gun, in falling, struck a stone, and was discharged, the contents of the barrel passing into the fleshy part of his right leg and inflicting injuries of a very serious though not probably fatal character.

Officer Gumbert was at once removed to a house near by, and his wants properly attended to. In the afternoon he was placed on a train and brought to the city, arriving here last evening. He was conveyed to his home, foot of Congress street, and Dr. Pollock summoned, who dressed his wounds. The doctor states that he will probably be confined to his house for some time.

Amusements.

Pittsburgh Opera House.—The attendance at the New Opera House last evening was quite large and fashionable, but yet not so conspicuously so as the rare inducement offered warranted. Here we have had Mrs. Lander, the most finished and accomplished lady artist on the stage, the peer of Ristori and Charlotte Cushman, for nearly a whole week and on no one night has there been present so large an audience as her genius and talent merit. It was the cry last season that the management failed to bring hither the true and higher representatives of the histrionic profession, but what encouragement is given when he does so. An ordinary actress, to say nothing of a woman possessing such rare intellectual gifts as Mrs. Lander, would blush to appear before such slim audiences. We hope that to-night, the occasion of her benefit, there will be an improvement so far as the numerical strength of the audience is concerned and that every seat will be occupied. The beautiful historical play of Marie Stuart will be presented. To-morrow afternoon's matinee and Saturday evening's performance will conclude the engagement of Mrs. Lander, the queen of the stage.

Fifth Avenue Opera House.—Mr. Neil Warner will take a benefit to-night, and a rare good bill is offered. Mr. Sydney Marlow, the promising young American actor, and Miss Rawlinson will both appear. To-morrow afternoon a grand matinee will be held.

The Academy was comfortably filled last night, on the fourth appearance of the Lydia Thompson troupe. To-night the fair and accomplished Lydia takes a benefit.

Library Hall.—Another large and fashionable audience assembled at Library Hall last night, at the second grand concert of the Theodore Thomas troupe. The performances were the finest ever heard in this city, and afforded the liveliest enjoyment to all the attendance. To-night there will be an entire change of programme. A fashionable matinee will be held to-morrow afternoon.

The last concert of the season on to-morrow (Saturday night) bids fair to be the most popular one of them all. Mr. Thomas has done his very best in selecting the most pleasing and attractive pieces for the occasion, and, in addition he will favor us with that lovely gem the Traumerei, Beethoven's finest inspiration, the Tannhauser overture, Schubert's popular march and other delightful selections will be presented, making up a sum total of musical attractions surpassing all his previous efforts. Mr. Thomas is determined to leave a mighty impression with his Pittsburgh friends, so let us one and all honor his efforts by crowding the hall to-morrow evening.

Masonic Hall.—The Hibernicon was again largely attended last night. It is a delightful entertainment. To-night it will again be presented.

Louis Napoleon recently planted, in the park attached to his English residence, a young shoot of weeping willow from Longwood, St. Helena.

David Macferron, City Treasurer of Allegheny city, was one of the many who was willing to go his pile on the Smithfield church property yesterday.

St. Vincent's Literary Society, of Birmingham, yesterday sent to Mayor Brush, for the relief fund, $89.69, the proceeds of one of their entertainments.

Five per cent. of the estates of unmarried persons in Pennsylvania goes to the State at their decease. Moral—Get married, and thus cheat the State out of that five per cent.

We understand the City Solicitor has failed to find any law as yet, that prevents Councils from giving the Consolidated Gas Co. the right to furnish our citizens with cheap gas.

The book-keeper of Genkinger, the New Castle liquor dealer, has been compelled to give bonds for his appearance, when the trial of his employer comes up in the U. S. District Court.

The Steubenville Herald has an account of the killing on the C. & P. R. R., near that place on Friday evening, of a man named William Seely, who was run over by a train and literally cut to pieces.

A good sort of man was recently asked to subscribe for a chandelier for the church. "Now," said he, "what's the use of a chandelier? When you get it you con't get any one to play on it." He saved his money.

The Pittsburgh Gas Company stock sold at eighty-one dollars, just twenty dollars per share less than before the Consolidated Gas Company was organized. There must be some virtue in the new company, after all.

The funeral of Wm. Waddington in Allegheny yesterday took place at 10 A. M. It was attended by the different orders of which he was a member, and the procession was one of the longest ever witnessed in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shidle celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday evening, at their residence, on Centre avenue. May they live many more years to enjoy the happy union consummated half a century ago.

Pittsburgh now pays $1.85 for one thousand cubic feet of gas, and we are reliably informed that as good gas could be furnished us at one-half the price, and still permit the manufacturers to declare ten per cent. on their capital stock.

Our much appreciated and very worthy friend, John Paul, Esq., of the Second ward, was yesterday united in matrimony to Mrs. Elizabeth Boggs, of Lower St. Clair township. We tender our heartiest congratulations and wish they may live long and prosper.

The Oil City Board of Health have decided to erect a hospital for contagious diseases. Is the oil fever contageous, and will that class of patients affected with it be admitted to the hospital? John Mawhinney, members of the Board of Health, please answer through the Derrick.

It is said that several New York capitalists have offered to furnish all the money wanted to make the Consolidated Gas Company a success. It is not necessary to have New Yorkers furnish the means, as there are any number of capitalists here ready to take the stock just as soon as the company is ready to commence operations.

La Mere Marchal, the oldest waffle-maker in Paris, recently died at the age of eighty-nine years. Three hundred mourning waffle-makers attended her funeral. She was vivandiere under the first empire, and was wounded once at Loban and twice at Moscow. She invented the go-around now placed on all waffle-boxes. The person who turns it when its index stops over the lowest number, pays for the waffles ordered.

An unfortunate occurrence took place since the death of Col. Stanton, which adds to the other troubles of the already deeply afflicted family. It seems that through the carelessness of an old negro servant, the house caught fire and was nearly consumed, only the most strenuous exertions saving the dwelling from being entirely destroyed. Mrs. Stanton is an invalid and has been in delicate health for a long time, and her daughter is now lying dangerously ill with the scarlet fever.

Moved by C. W. Ouston, Esq., and duly seconded that the Association elect two new members to serve on the Room Committee. An election by ballot was held and resulted in the choice of J. J. Fisher and Wm. Hasson as members of the Room Committee.—Oil City Derrick.

We would like to have friend Bishop, or Owston, or Fisher, or Munhall, or some one who knows to tell us what the duties of that "Room Committee" are. They must be important.

The mistake in the President's Ku-Klux proclamation, by which Marion county, South Carolina, was put under martial law instead of Union, occurred through the impossibility of reading the list of counties which Mr. Akerman sent to the Attorney General's office in his own handwriting. All were satisfactorily deciphered except the word "Union," and all experts in bad penmanship in the office finally decided that it was "Marion," and so the proclamation including the latter county went forth.

Mr. Chas. A. Geissenhainer, one of our practical mechanics, has just applied for a patent on a very valuable invention in the way of a pneumatic tell table switch for railroads. It is devised that a displaced switch is signalled to approaching engineers from either side for any required distance, thus completely obviating accidents arising from the carelessness of negligent switch tenders. The invention we regard as second only in importance to the Westinghouse air brake, and is much upon the same principal.

During the past summer we were frequently requested to call attention to the obstruction placed on the street crossing at the junction of Hancock street with Liberty, but refused, believing that whilst the improvements were going forward, it was unavoidable. But this is not now the case, and we notify the parties occupying the building that a great many persons have complained to us on the subject, and we trust they will in the future cease to use the crossing in loading and unloading goods. By the way, would it not be much better to change the crossing to the opposite side of Hancock street or straighten it so that it would not interfere with the operations of the house on the corner and in whose front it obliquely crosses? Let us remedy the trouble in some way.

RAILROAD CASE SETTLED.

Pennsylvania Central vs. Atlantic & Great Western—Opinion of the Supreme Court—The Right to Cross the Tracks Settled.

Yesterday morning the case of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Pennsylvania Company are lessees, and the Catawissa Railroad, Atlantic and Great Western Company lessees, was finally decided in the Supreme Court. The Catawissa Road crosses the Erie at several points; the latter Company went into court and obtained an injunction to prevent these crossings—alleging that it worked great injury to them (the Philadelphia and Erie Company.) The Catawissa Company appealed and the case is thus decided by the Supreme Court, Judge Thompson delivering the opinion.

"It is a rule of very general application in this Court that mandatory matter is not to be part or portion of a decree for preliminary injunction. The object of such injunction is usually to preserve statue quo of the parties until final hearing; but the act of 19th of June, 1871, entitled "an act relating to legal proceedings by adjacent corporations," seems to require a different practice. For the present, at least, we must regard that act valid and binding, and it requires that in "all proceedings in courts of law or equity of the Commonwealth, when they relate to crossings of railroads it shall be their duty to ascertain and define by their decree the mode of such crossing, which will inflict the least practicable injury upon the rights of the company owning the road which is intended to be crossed, and if in the judgment of such courts it is reasonably practicable to avoid a grade crossing, they shall by their process prevent a crossing at grade." We cannot practically put in use the act in this case, supposing for the present that its provisions extend to the Catawissa Road, which we do not definitely settle, without doing as did our brother Sharswood at nisi prius, prescribe the manner of its use at the crossings of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad. This explanation seems necessary in order to preclude what might be thought a divergence of this Court from its ordinary rule. Now, to wit, November 9, 1871: In view of the circumstances that the appellant's have finished their road, and it is now in running order for the carriage of freight and passengers, as well as construction materials, we have, on consideration of the facts and arguments of counsel considered it expedient to modify the decree at nisi prius as follows, viz:

"That the defendants, the Catawissa Railroad Company, shall be permitted to cross the complainant's road at the several crossings now put in or constructing, with all their trains of cars on agreeing to maintain a watchman at each of said crossings at all times when the trains on the road are passing, and that each and every train shall come to a full stop upon crossing the complainant's roads, and then pass over at a rate not exceeding four miles an hour." This order to supply the conditions of crossings prescribed in the decree as the cases entered at Nisi Prius, August 10, 1871, and no more, and remains until further orders, and so much of said decree as relates to the reference to engineers to remain unaffected by this modification.

THE FUR TRADE.

William Fleming & Co.'s Hat Emporium—Goods from 15 to 20 Per Cent. Lower Than Any Other House.

The rapid progress made in the hat and fur trade at the well known and popular wholesale and retail hat, cap and fur house of William Fleming & Co., No. 139 Wood street, this city, is attributable solely to the fair and honorable manner of doing business at this establishment, and to the fact that goods are sold from 15 to 20 per cent. cheaper than the same article can be purchased at any other establishment. The Messrs. Fleming & Co.'s long connection with and experience and knowledge in the business enables them to offer inducements to both wholesale and retail buyers, and particularly to country dealers, which cannot be offered by any other house. Their stock of furs this season is one of the largest ever brought to this market, embracing all the latest styles, at prices to suit the wants and means of every purchaser. The trade has already opened briskly, and these goods are going off quite rapidly, consequently we would advise all who contemplate purchasing a set of furs—and what lady can now do without them—to call at William Fleming & Co's, No. 139 Wood street, where they can obtain better goods for less money than at any other house. Gentlemen in search of a stylish hat will find all the latest, and particularly the "Tourist," the most popular hat out. Call and see the immense stock of goods.

FORBES STREET.

In the Supreme Court—The Arguments Concluded.

Yesterday the everlasting Forbes street case came up again in the Supreme Court. This is a street in the Sixth ward, the proposed opening of which has been the source of litigation for several years. The main point in dispute seems to be that the street was laid out in the old city District Plan, but not opened; that a number of parties erected houses for residence and business purposes, "over the line." Now that the street is to be really opened, these parties are compelled to move their edifices. The viewers who were put on to assess the benefits and damages on the "opening" allowed damages to these parties, alleging, as the street was not literally opened that the line was not really established, and consequently the parties could not be held responsible for building over it.

On the other hand the "opening" is opposed on the ground that a majority in interest of the property owners never petitioned for it as required by law. The view of damages is also objected to because it is contended that the laying out of the street in the district plan, was sufficient to show property holders where to mark their boundaries, if the street was not bona fide opened at the time; hence parties who "built over" cannot recover damages.

These seem to be the main points at issue, but there are other and vexatious legal questions raised which have prolonged the litigation for years. The case was argued yesterday by the counsel, as will be seen by our Court reports and occupied the attention of the Court nearly all day. The papers were then taken in charge by the Court—they formed a formidable bundle—and reserved decision.

TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

A Woman Probably Fatally Burned.

About noon yesterday an accident occurred in a tenement house on First avenue, near the Point, by which a woman sustained injuries of a horrible nature, which will likely have resulted fatally before this reaches our readers. The victim is an elderly woman, aged perhaps fifty-five, named Hannah Collins. During the morning she had been drinking freely and at the time mentioned set about preparing dinner, her husband, Patrick Collins, going out to make some purchases and leaving her alone. Through some cause her clothes took fire and by the time the neighbors, in response to her cries, arrived upon the scene she was enveloped in flames. The fire could not be extinguished until her clothing had been entirely consumed, her face and neck burned to a crisp in some places and other parts of her body severely burned. Dr. Tindle attended her and states that her recovery is next to impossible. At last accounts she was still living, although in a precarious condition. Mrs. Collins is the mother of the young man who was killed on Third avenue year or two since.

Prince Albert.

A beautiful quality of Black Alpaca, imported by a leading Philadelphia house, and bearing the above name, is worthy the attention of our lady readers, and all who purchase this desirable and cheap fabric for dresses and suits. They have already become widely popular in the East, and we believe them superior to any other make of Alpaca. The main point of excellence is their beautiful shade and texture, and, being finished so perfectly on both sides, they admit of being turned after long service, without loss of color or freshness. Our attention was drawn to these goods at Messrs. J. B. Heard & Co's., who are introducing them in this market. We were shown very pretty qualities at thirty to fifty cents. WFS.

ORDINANCES.

PITTSBURGH.

An Ordinance to Provide for the Erection of New Water Works.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the City of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That the erection and construction of the new Water Works of the City of Pittsburgh shall be in charge of a commission to consist of five citizens and free-holders of the said city, to be appointed as follows: The Councils of said city shall meet in joint session at such time after the passage of this ordinance as Councils may, by resolution, direct, and elect said Commissioners—one to serve for the term of one year; one to serve for the term of two years, one for the term of three years, and two (one a member of Select and the other of Common Councils) to serve until the next annual election of city officers. Said Councils shall annually thereafter upon the day of the first regular meeting of Council, in the month of October, meet in joint session to elect one citizen and freeholder of said city, to serve for the period of three years in place of the Commissioner whose term shall have then expired; and, at the next annual election of city officers, and annually thereafter, they shall elect one member of Select and one of the Common Council to serve for the period of one year.

If any vacancy should occur in said Commission by death, resignation, removal from office, or removal from the city, said Councils shall, as soon as practicable, meet in joint session and elect a suitable person to supply the vacancy, who shall hold the office for the unexpired term of the person whose place he may be selected to fill.

Said Commissioners shall hold said office for the time for which they may have been respectively elected, and until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified, unless sooner removed by a two-third vote of the members of Councils present in joint session, at a meeting called for that purpose, and shall perform the duties herein prescribed without compensation.

SEC. 2. Said Commissioners shall, as soon as practicable after their election, meet and, having been first duly sworn to faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of their appointment, shall organize by the election of one of their number as President, and shall as soon as possible after their organization examine the work to be done and report to Councils the number and character of the officers and assistants required for the proper prosecution of the work, and the amount of salaries to be paid to each, and upon approval of said report by Councils, said Commissioners shall be authorized to employ such officers and assistants at salaries not exceeding the amount specified by Councils, and no other officers or assistants shall be employed by said Commissioners unless the consent of Councils shall be given thereto.

SEC. 3. All officers and assistants employed by said Commissioners shall give bonds with security to be approved by said Commissioners in such amounts as said Commissioners may determine, and shall be sworn to faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of their appointment. They shall be subject to removal by said Commissioners, who shall be authorized to make rules and regulations as to the duties and government of all persons so employed by them.

SEC. 4. Said Commissioners shall have charge and supervision of the erection and construction of the Water Works in accordance with the general plan adopted by Councils on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1871, subject to such modifications as Councils may hereafter direct.

SEC. 5. Said Commissioners shall be authorized to select sites for waterworks, engine houses, basins, reservoirs, conduits and pipes, and to negotiate with the owners of any of said property for the purchase or use of the same, subject to the approval of Councils, whenever said Commissioners shall make a contract for the purchase or use of any land for the purposes of said Water Works, they shall report the same to Councils, and if approved by them, said Commissioners shall perfect the same in the name and on behalf of the city of Pittsburgh.

SEC. 6. If, in any case, said Commissioners shall be unable to agree with the owner of any property which they may desire to purchase or use for said Water Works, they shall report to Councils a description of the property which they desire to take, and the purpose for which the same is to be used, whereupon the Councils may, if they deem proper, order the same to be taken and condemned under the provisions of "An act to provide for the Extension of the Water Works of the City of Pittsburgh," approved the 15th day of March, A. D., 1871.

SEC. 7. Said Commissioners shall cause to be prepared detailed plans for the erection and construction of buildings, basins, reservoirs, conduits, machinery and all other things necessary for the complete construction and operation of said Water Works in accordance with the general plan aforesaid, and make and enter into contracts for the work and materials therefor, including all pipes to be laid in extension of the present works, or in lieu of pipes rendered unnecessary by the extension in accordance with said plan, but not including repairs to the works as they now exist. Provided, that all contracts shall be made with the lowest and best bidder upon sealed proposals in writing, after advertisement in the papers authorized to do the city printing, and in such other papers as said Commissioners shall think advisable, for at least ten days before the time fixed for receiving the same, and no contract for work or materials shall be made payable in bonds, but all such contracts shall be upon terms of payment in cash.

SEC. 8. No commissioner, officer, assistant or employe shall be directly or indirectly interested in any contract for lands, work or materials for said Water Works. And in all contracts it shall be expressly stipulated that if any of said parties shall be so interested, the same shall be null and void, and that no suit or suits shall be maintained against the City of Pittsburgh for, or on account of anything which may be done under or in pursuance thereof, and that if any money shall be paid by said city, on account thereof, the same may be recovered from the party receiving the same, in an action or actions in the name of said city.

SEC. 9. All contracts shall be made in the name of the City of Pittsburgh, and shall be signed by said commissioners or a majority of them, on behalf of the city, and when necessary, the Mayor of the city shall attach the corporate seal of the city thereto.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Controller to issue bonds authorized by the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act to authorize the City of Pittsburgh to borrow money;" approved February 28, 1868, and the act approved March 5, 1871, above recited, from time to time, as may be required by said Commissioners. Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor, countersigned by the Controller, and sealed by the Mayor with the corporate seal of the city. They shall bear date the second day of October, 1871, and shall be payable in twenty-five years from said date, and bear interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum, payable semi-annually.

SEC. 11. Said bonds shall be sold under the directions of said Commissioners, who shall report all sales so made to the Controller within ten days after the same have been made and within the same time pay to the City Treasurer all moneys received on account thereof, who shall enter and account for the same as part of the Water Extension fund.

SEC. 12. The Controller shall take receipts from said Commissioners for all bonds delivered to them for sale, and shall keep accurate accounts of all bonds issued and of all moneys which may be received or paid on account thereof, and shall cancel and file all bonds and coupons which may at any time be paid by the City Treasurer.

SEC. 13. Said Commissioners shall certify to the Controller in writing all claims approved and allowed by them, who shall certify warrants for the amount thereof, payable from the water extension fund, if there is at the time sufficient money in said fund undisposed of, which warrant when signed by the Mayor shall be paid by the City Treasurer from the money in said fund. Provided that the Controller shall not certify a warrant in payment of any claim unless the same is accompanied by an affidavit of said claimant that the amount thereof is justly due, and that no Commissioners, officers, or other employes are directly or indirectly interested therein.

SEC. 14. Said Commissioners shall keep or cause to be kept full and perfect minutes of all their proceedings, and all other books and accounts necessary to a full understanding of the business transacted by them, which shall at all times during business hours be kept open for the inspection of the City Controller, Finance Committee of Councils and any other committee duly appointed by Councils for that purpose, and they shall at the first regular meeting of Councils in December next and quarterly thereafter make to Councils a detailed report of all their proceedings, including an account of bonds sold, moneys received and expended and contracts entered into, and all other matters necessary for a full understanding of the business transacted by them.

SEC. 15. The acts of a majority of said Commissioners shall avail as the acts of all.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils this 30th day of October, A. D. 1871.

A. B. GROSS,
President of Select Council.
Attest: E. S. MORROW,
Clerk of Select Council.

ARMENIA
Insurance Co.,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
Capital Stock, $500,000.
Corporators and Committee on Organization:

S. S. D. THOMPSON,	B. F. JONES,
ALEX. PATTERSON,	JOHN H. McCRERRY
JAMES McBRIER,	ALEX. NIMICK,
J. D. SCULLY,	WM. COLEMAN,
M. K. MOORHEAD,	WM. P. LOGAN,
G. W. SMITH,	JAS. T. BRADY,
JACOB H. WALTER,	B. A. SAMPSON,
JOSEPH WALTON,	JOSEPH MYERS.

PLAN OF ASSOCIATION:
Officers and Agents are required to be shareholders, thereby ensuring economy, active cooperation and a careful selection of Risks.
The Capital Stock to be fully paid up in CASH, and be judiciously distributed through the important business centres of the Wes , making the ARMENIA a solid national company.
It will be controlled and officered by men of skill and experience in the business of Insurance, whose entire time and attention will be devoted to its interests.
With a solid capital of $500,000 held by active business men and property owners and Insurance agents, in all the important western towns and cities, it is not unreasonable to expect that the Armenia will at once take position and place as one of the most prominent American Insurance Companies, amply rewarding its stockholders, and proving a solid and enduring benefit to this commercial centre.
The recognition of Pittsburgh as a great mart of trade and business cannot be avoided, nor can it be doubted that the present is the time to complete just such an organization as is proposed, and that this city is the place.
Yours, respectfully,
S. S. D. THOMPSON, Chairman.
